Foreword

It's the Forward Look! Using the sweeping, flowing lines of the strato-streaked cars of 1956, the Comet has this year applied the Forward Look to Stephen F. Austin High School.

Each class now looks ahead with maximum vision into the panoramic view of the wide, open road. Thrilling adventures and opportunities lie ahead. New experiences are just beyond the next crossroad. Brilliant rewards and spectacular success may unfold as one touches the bright instrument panel of the future.

Seniors look forward through the super-scenic windshield anticipating a new and exciting life as they hold the wheel with eager hands. Flashes of the future challenge them, and they long to test their new power. Spirits soar like gleaming silver as they speed up and break away. With a nudge of the accelerator, seniors go swiftly and surely in a blaze of glorious excitement, marking this a momentous year.

Sophomores and juniors also dash forward enjoying their new surge of advancement. Power steering will help them on the fast, hard turns ahead. Brilliant performance and dependability will be expected of them as they rush into the magic beyond of tomorrow.

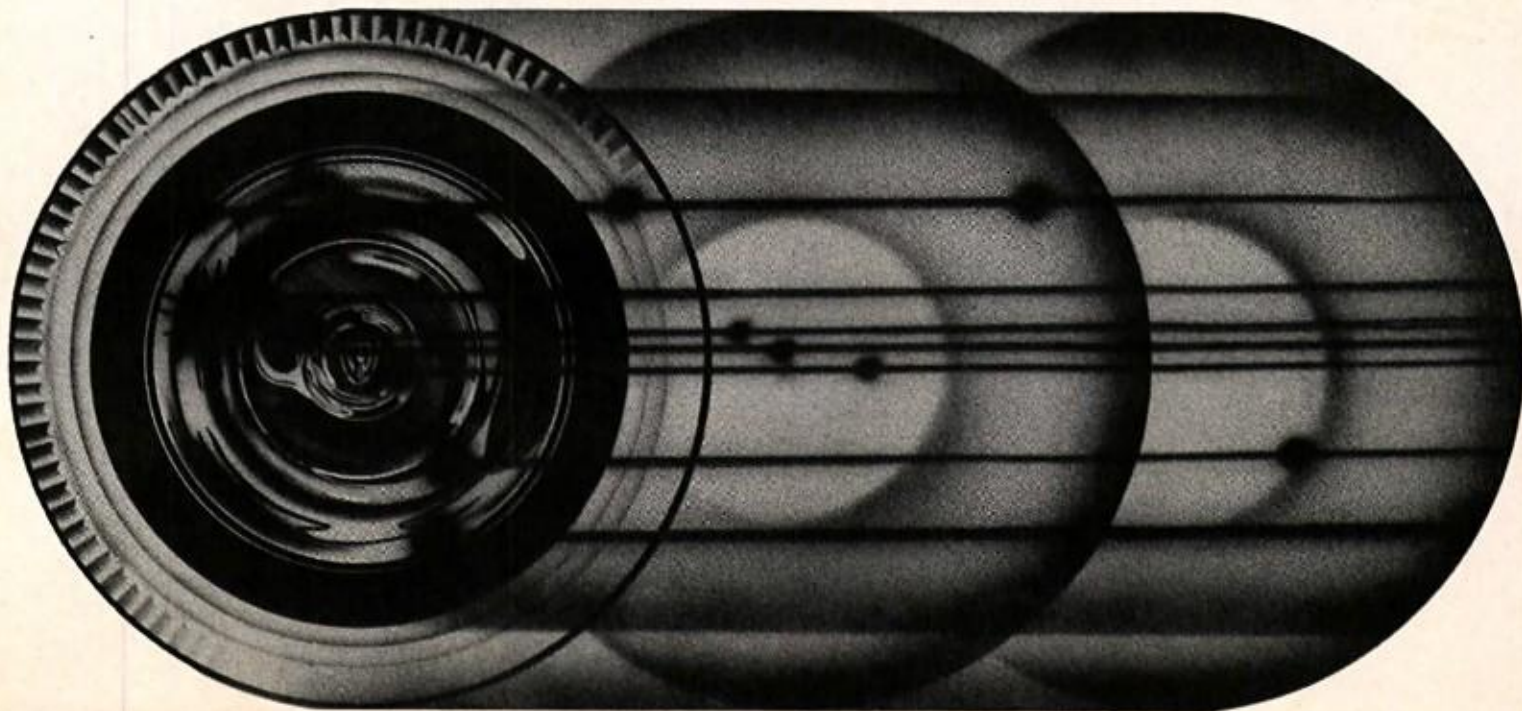

The Comet's futuristic art designs capture the streamlined trend. Inspired by the shining chromium decorations of the Forward Look in 1956 automotive design, the staff has used moving, expressive lines throughout the pages to augment this theme. Pace and action, sweep and flair—these are the qualities of 1956.

STUDENT LIFE

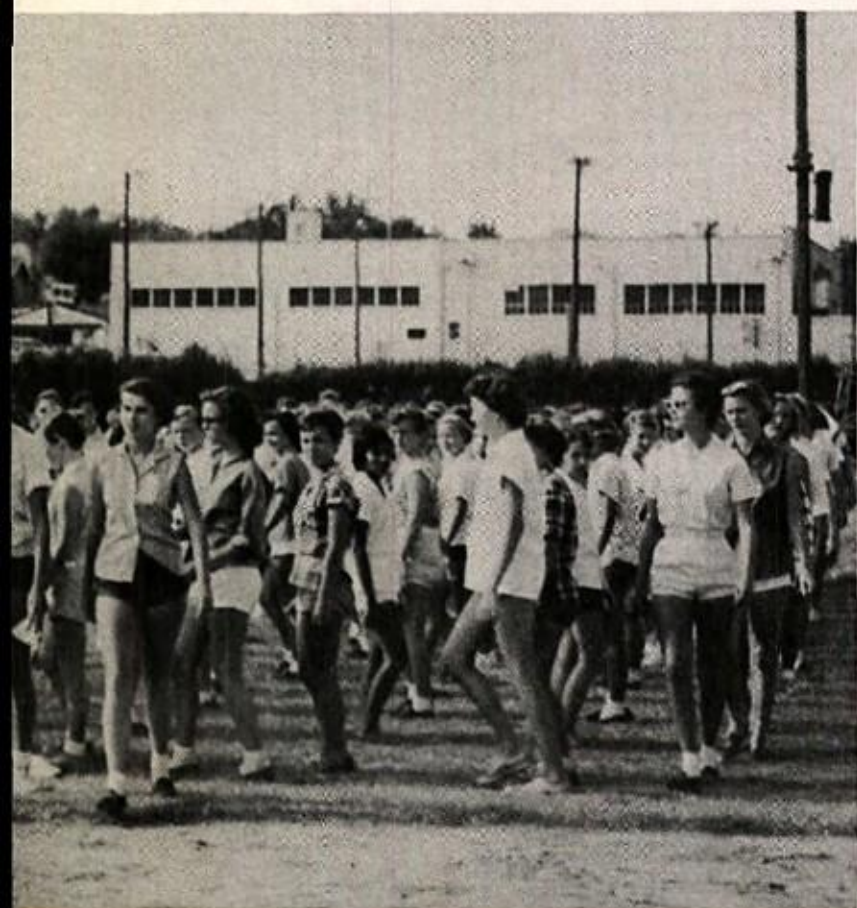

COLOR DAY—AHS students came out in style—dressed in Maroon and White, of course, for the big pep rally before the game with the Travis Rebels. Special ribbon streamers were sold that day with "Loyal Forever" printed on them.

THOUGHT THEY'D NEVER COME—The long-awaited day arrives, September 21, when the seniors get their badges of prestige, senior rings. Here Norman Mendeke, Sarah Hellums, and Ann Taylor have their money ready for Mr. Ramsey, representative of the Balfour Co.

ORIENTATION—Students from O'Henry, UJH, and Allan undergo extensive "get-acquainted" procedures. Red Jackets, Joyce Eitelman, Martha Stumberg, and Gay Stolley help students fill out the many cards and material for registration. Later the new sophomores were taken on a tour of the building.

GUIDE RIGHT, GUIDE LEFT!—Red Jackets practiced their marching from seven to nine o'clock in the morning for three weeks before school started at House Park in preparation for their half-time shows. Here they practice their entrance, "Crazy Column."

SPORTSMANSHIP—It's tough running against a friend. Here the two student council presidential candidates, Roddy Edens and Lee Hughes, wish each other well before embarking upon their campaigns.

SCHOLARSHIP FINALISTS—Marjorie Heimann, Keith Rhea, Robert Gray, Bruce Ryan, Judy Ravel, Mike Moehlman, and Joe Love were the finalists in the National Merit Scholarship tests. They competed against other finalists on January 14 at UT.

OUR CUSTODIAN, MR. SMITH, raises the United Nations flag in commemoration of United Nations Day, symbolizing world brotherhood on the local scene.

DAY FOR REMEMBERING—On November 11, we at AHS, along with Americans all over the world, paused a moment to remember those who died in the service of their country. Sally Emerson places a wreath on the memorial to AHS exes who fought in World War I, while Mike Cotton, Robert Gray, Mike Nalley, and Roddy Edens look on.

MR. BAKER, MR. CLEMENS, the business manager for the Austin Public Schools; and Mr. Carruth, superintendent of schools, inspect the beautiful new seats and floor of the auditorium. New aisles were also made, and the floor was slanted for easier vision.

THEY PICK 'EM PRETTY—It was a hard chore for the FFA to select one among so many pretty nominees for sweetheart. Here Stephanie McConnell, Joy Henson, and Patsy Davis anxiously await the announcement of FFA Sweetheart for 1956.

AND HERE COMES THE PITCH—(At Right) Betty House and Gail Murphy take advantage of the change in weather to get in practice for a good old snowball throwing contest.

A MANY SPLENDORED THING—Kay Pearson is just one of the many unbelieving and excited AHS'ers who will not soon forget November 8, 1955, THE DAY IT SNOWED.

BOOK FRIENDS—Mrs. Georgia Robbins, librarian; Joan Huntly, Loretta Taylor, and Margaret Ferdinandson arrange posters and displays to call attention to National Book Week, November 13-19. This is the thirty-seventh year for the annual affair.

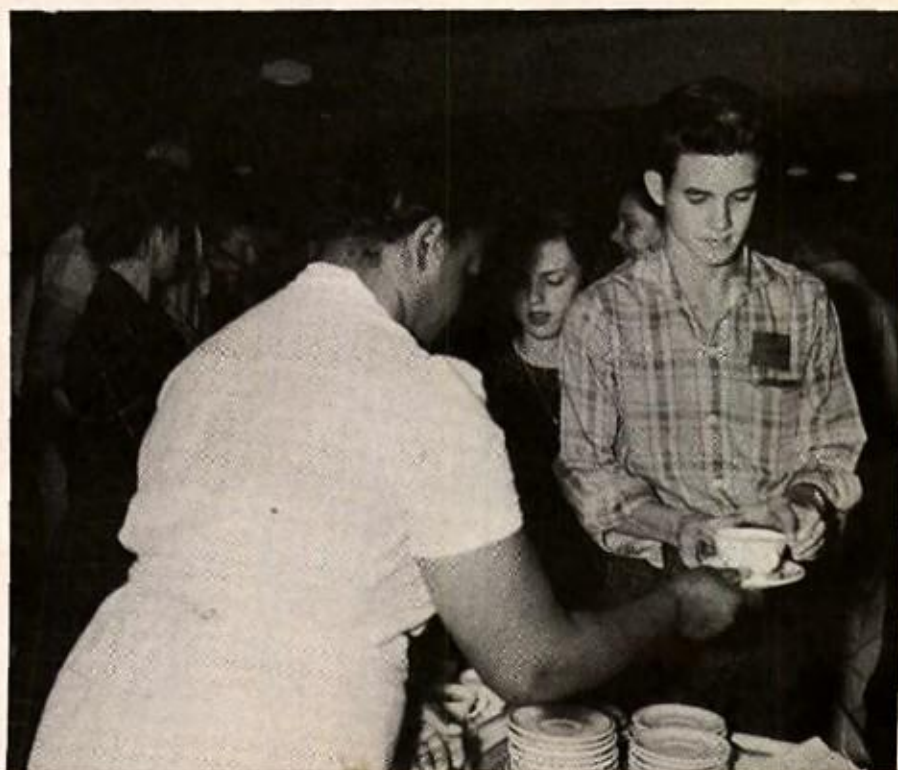

THE GANG'S ALL HERE—for a rip roarin' snowball fight. Students couldn't wait to get out of school and get in that strange stuff called snow as Betty Cook, Dick Smith, Barry Collier, Ed Coker, Jonathan Deckard, and Bert Cromack illustrate.

FEEDIN' OUR FACES AS USUAL—Sherman Noble, John Steinle, Harry Myers, Ann Rogers, Greg Gannaway, Charles Weiss, and John Babcock really go for the different kinds of food at the International Dinner given by the FHA. Native dishes of nine countries were served, and floor show with dancers in native costumes was presented. The food was prepared and served by girls taking home economics.

RISE AND SHINE—The Student Council gave the faculty members a breakfast in the school cafeteria December 20, at 7:30 A.M. Joy Henson, Carol Wheeler, Peggy Porsch, and Kay Ransom get ready for the crowd. Billy Jackson and Mary Shelton stand in line for coffee.

JUST WANT A LITTLE WARDROBE OF GOLD!—Mrs. Cruz from Goodfriend's gives the girls something to add to their Christmas lists—beautiful clothes with the opulent look. This all-girl assembly gave girls ideas about coming fashions and trends and was a special treat.

LET'S HAVE A PARTY—Mrs. Weisser's tenth-grade advisory has a birthday party complete with a big birthday cake, and cokes for Mr. Anderson on "the last birthday he is ever going to count" he says.

THE PLAY'S THE THING—Red Dragons John D. Reichert, Diane Durrett, John T. Davis, Bob Peden, and Gayle Haden rehearse a scene from the first fall production, "Ladies of the Jury." This three-act comedy concerning the individual personalities of a jury considering a murder case was presented on October 6 and 7.

GOT ALL YOUR JUNK?—Connie Moffit, Mary Morris and Jean Burkhalter check over the things they brought to be sure they haven't forgotten anything . . . tie, gloves, bobby pins, perfume, and eyelash-curler!

WACO BOUND—A cavalcade of buses pulled out for Waco on the afternoon of November 18, filled with spirit-minded AHS students.

GOODWILL ENVOY—Friendly rivalry at the Austin-Waco game was assured when a delegation of Waco High School students and executives paid AHS a friendly visit on November 18. A reception committee showed the visitors around the building and treated them to donuts and Cokes.

As the vehicles rolled along to such songs as "When The Saints Go Marching In" and "Beer, Beer," the hours flew by and excitement for the Waco game started rising.

DRESSED FOR COMFORT—Tish Huffman shows off her Bermuda shorts and socks while May Rosner, Mary Morris, and Carol Weiner talk over Red Jacket formations for the half-time show in Waco.

GRAB A SEAT—There's a scramble for places; then the clothes, magazines, and plenty of food are stowed away until the buses are at least out of Austin. Then . . . the eating begins and ends as the buses roll into Waco. Getting situated are Esther Jessen, Ruth Health, and Anita Fox.

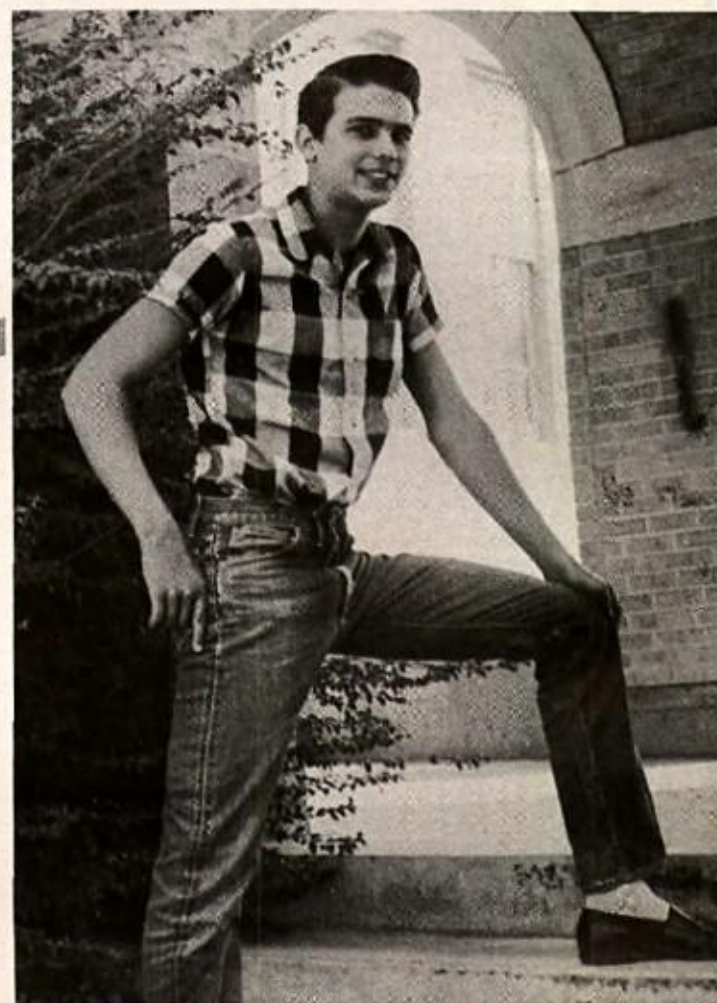

GET THAT WOOD—Among the hundreds of AHS students who spent many hours collecting scrap wood for the bonfire were Billy and Beverly Koen.

GATHER 'ROUND THE BONFIRE—Cheerleaders lead songs and yells around the biggest and best bonfire at Pease Park which highlighted the "Kayo the Coyotes" week. The three grades competed against each other in gathering fire wood for the honor of lighting the bonfire.

LOOK WHAT WE FOUND!—Wayne Huffman, Fran Morgan, Pat White, and Chuck Wood secure their prize for the top of the bonfire.

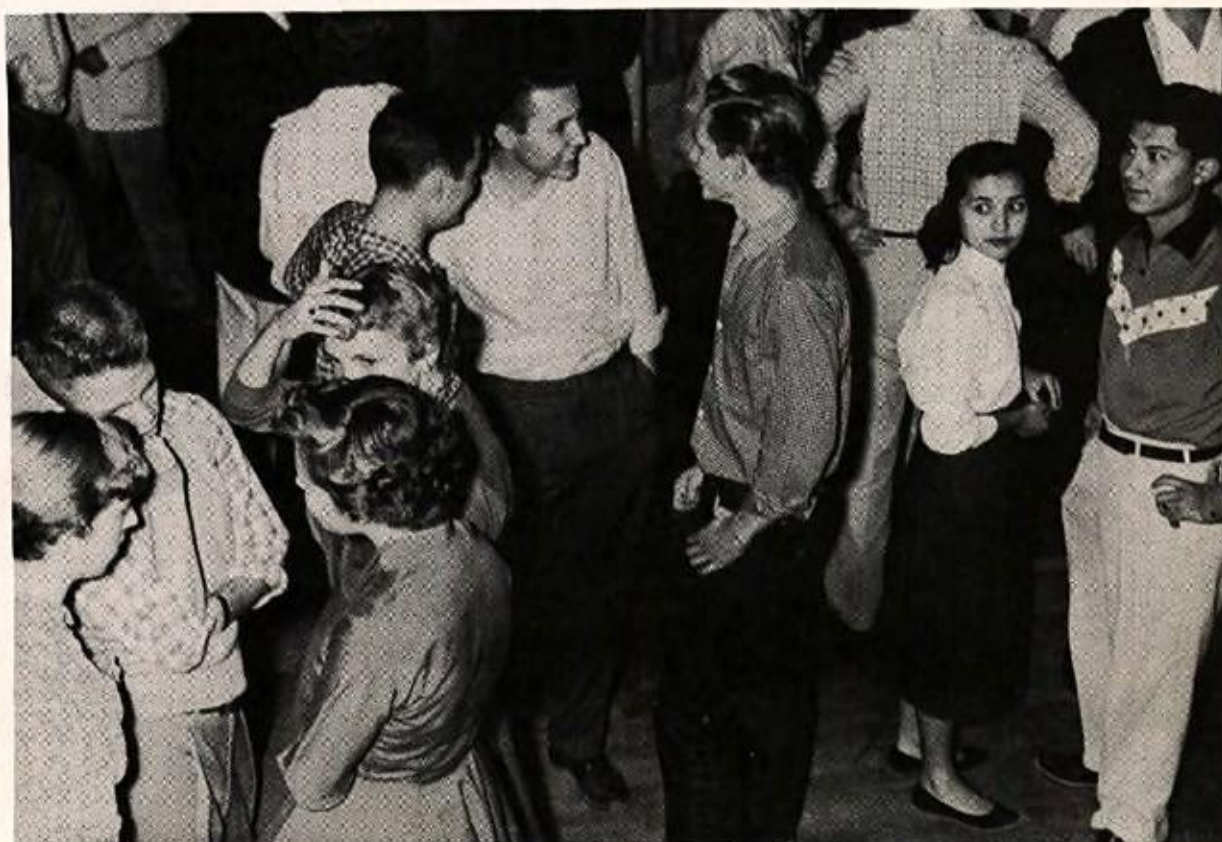

FRIENDLIEST—The traditional "Howdy Week" dance was climaxed by the presentation of the friendliest couple, Mike Nalley and Buzzy Lewis. Nominees were chosen in advisory elections. To start the week off every grade had name tags and "Howdy" Books. The object of this event was for AHS students to get acquainted and make as many new friends as possible.

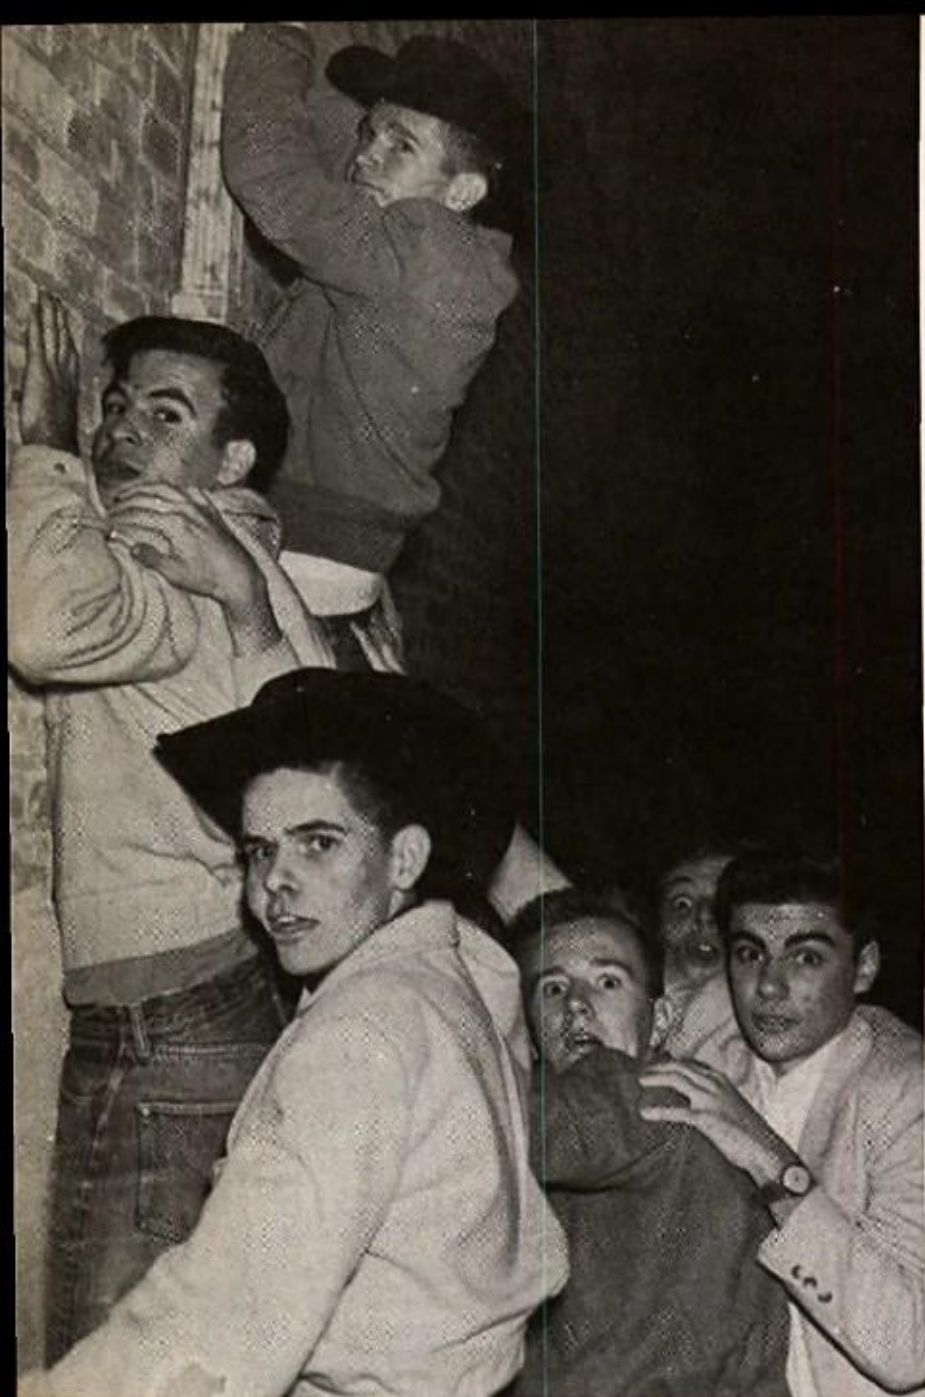

LOOKING AHEAD—Charlene Stuart, Judy Storch, and Barbara Taylor, members of Mrs. Clara Weisser's sophomore advisory, worked hard to get their fan.

A GAB SESSION—Mary Taylor, Jim Anderson, Pamela Smith, Peggy Davidson, David Gray, Robert Peel, Barry Wukash, Alice Aguirre, and Tim Torres take time out from dancing to talk. The theme of the dance was centered around "life in Outer Space."

GOING TO THE DANCE?—Eugene Fields, John Leonard, Don McCullough, Larry Smith, Vincent Guarino, and Rankin Chapman "climb the wall" in anticipation of going to the carnival dance.

DUNK A FOOTBALL PLAYER FOR ONLY ONE QUARTER—and Mr. Tolbert, too. Sam Olquin (at right) wishes that some of his friends would have a heart or a bad aim, as the prospects of falling into that icy water aren't too desirable.

GET EVEN WITH FRIENDS AND ENEMIES AT THE SPONGE THROW—Jeanette and Carolyn Studtman take their turns at being the target for revengeful friends.

GHOST RIDERS!—John Leonard and Don McCullough “double up” on the bronco ride, which was sponsored by the FFA. Many Friday clubs sponsored booths such as “old clothes sale” and “test your strength.”

The entire choral department directed by Miss Emma Virginia Decherd presented their annual Christmas concert and nativity tableaux on the nights of December 7 and 8.

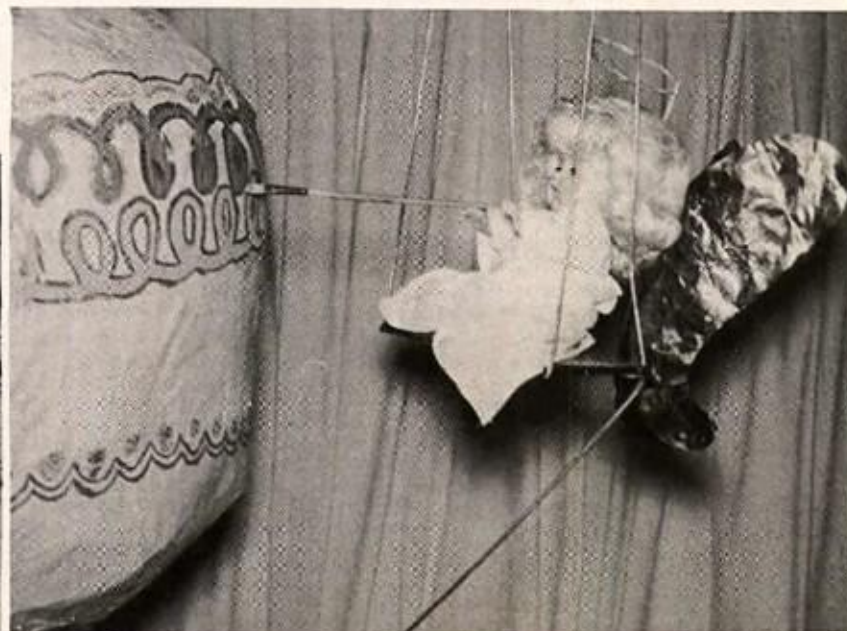

A highlight of the evening was the processional by candlelight by the choirs from the stage to the balcony, where the group sang the beautiful traditional carols in accompaniment to the nativity tableaux presented on the stage.

Participating in the tableaux were Mary Taylor, Ann Lemburg, Ruth Heath, Sally Anderson, Kay Pearson, Joy Henson, Linda Stevenson, and Martha Farmer as angels; Gary Craig, Talbot Huff, and Bruce Knierim as shepherds; Billy Jackson, Lee Mayfield, and Dick Gustafson as the wise men; Connie Moffit portrayed Mary, and Quentin Smith was Joseph.

"WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS"—Sing the Bel Canto girls as they carol in the halls on the last day of school before the holidays. Their carols put everyone in the wonderful Christmas mood.

TAKES TALENT—Ruth Isely, Sharon Johnson, Carolyn Keelen, and Carol Keeton try their hand at Christmas decorations. This talent was evident as their advisory won first place in the traditional division of the "Deck the Halls" contest. Part of the finished product is below.

SOME ENCHANTED EVENING—A heavenly Christmas was the theme for the annual Red Jacket formal on December 17. The gym was transformed into a heavenly scene complete with angels, pink clouds, and pearly gates. Floating on "cloud nine" at the moment is Billy Mills and Carol Weiner.

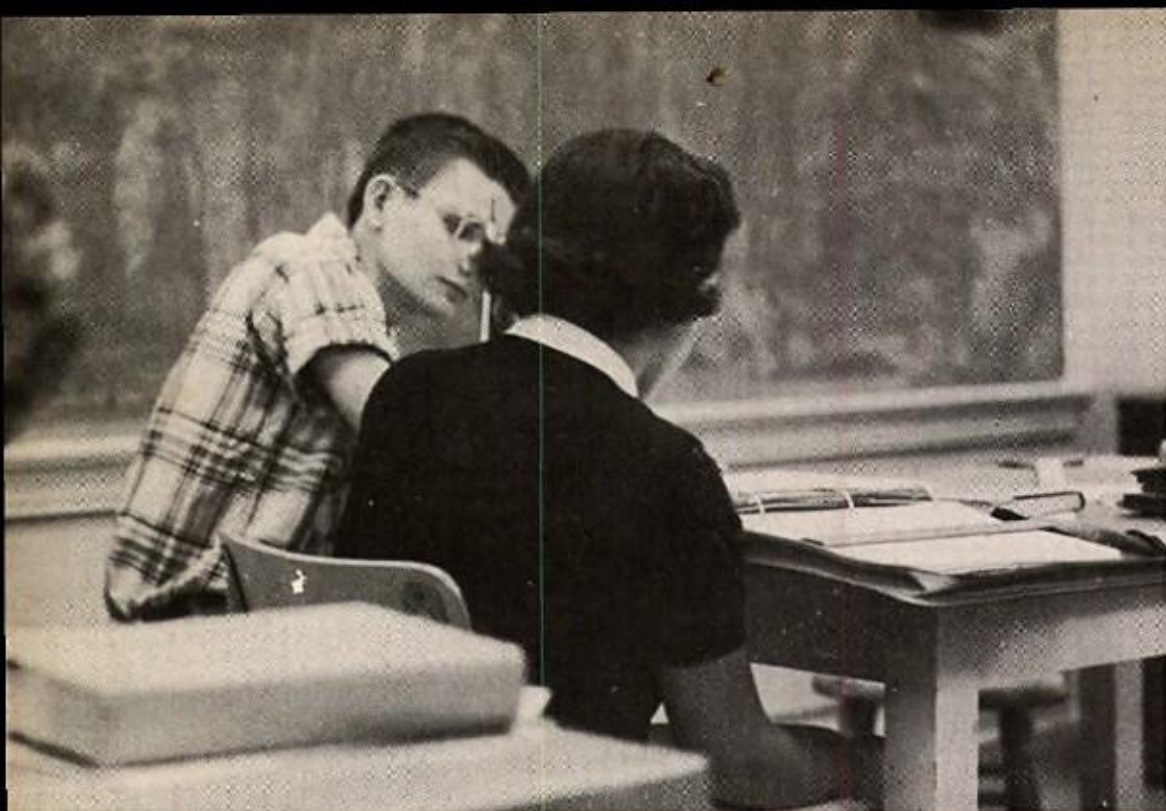

POLLY PEAL AND CAROL SPIRES are up early and on the job decorating for the annual Christmas formal. In spite of the early start, some of the decorators were still at the gym at six o'clock putting on the finishing touches.

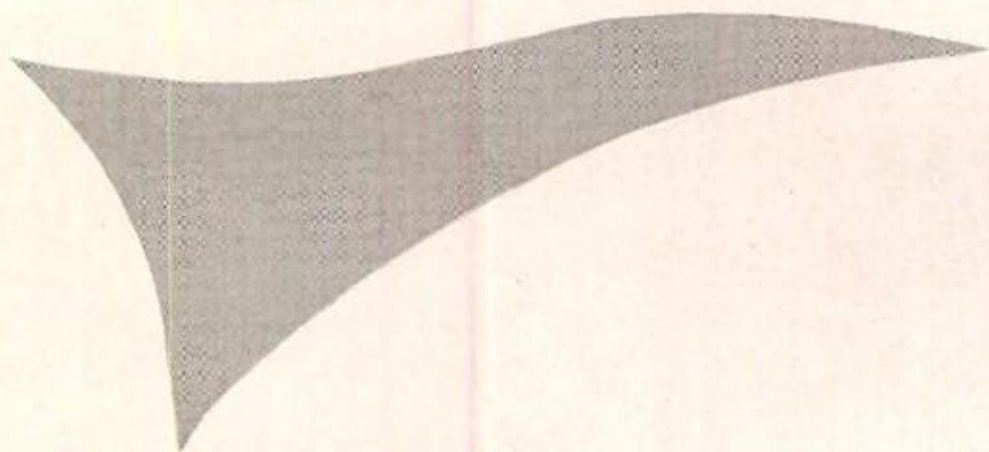

TIME FOR ENTERTAINMENT—Don Johnson pays his "soul to the Devil below," Joe Wells, at the Red Jacket formal. Saint Peter, portrayed by Mike Moehlman in white robe, beard and halo, was there, too, giving out silver haloes to deserving performers.

OH, YOU BEAUTIFUL DOLLS!—Kerry O'Quinn and Billy Koen perform their famous record pantomime act for students at the Red Jacket formal. Other AHS entertainers were the team of Connie Moffit and Colleen O'Connor and Don Johnson singing "Sixteen Tons."

MID-TERM CRAMMING—Billy Koen helps Claire Guarino with her algebra problems before finals start. This year exemption standards were raised to 90 for 12A's and 80 for 12B's.

LOTS OF WORK TO BE DONE—The teachers are hard at work filling classes for the spring semester. Hours of hard work went into juggling people and classes to fit schedules best. Teachers pictured are Mr. Patrick, Miss Deckerd, Miss Dickard, Mrs. Kitchens, Mr. Hamlett, Mr. Baker, Miss Trenkmann, Mr. Wilson, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Martins, Miss Herdon and Mrs. Anderson.

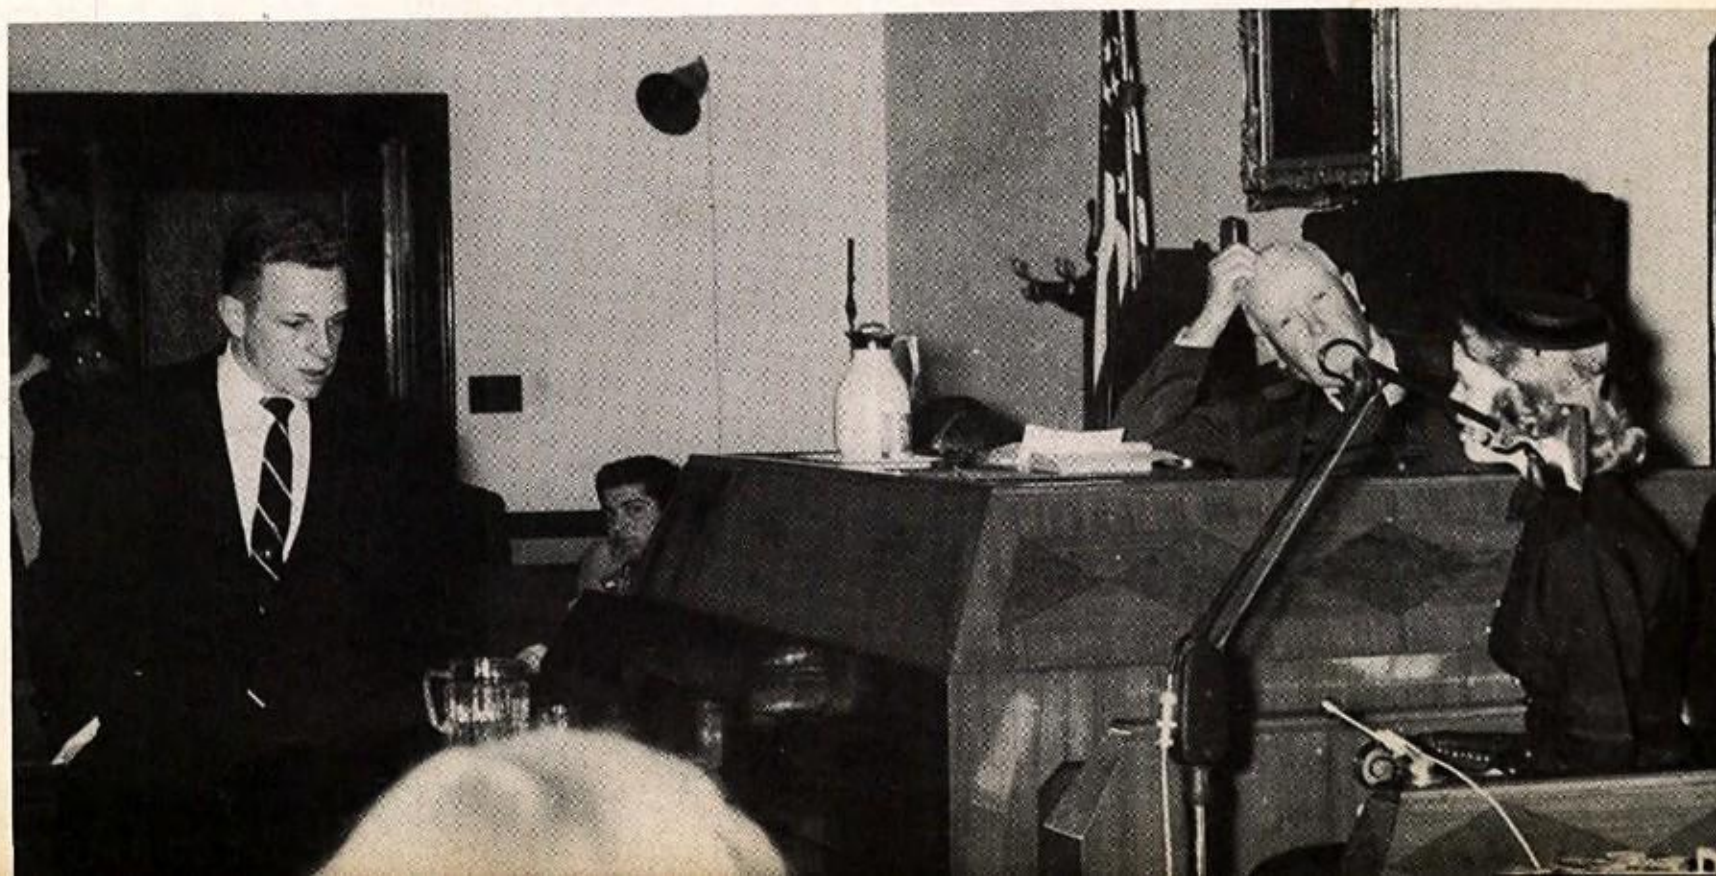

CAN'T FIND A THING—As the lockers were cleaned out at the end of the semester, some people who forgot had to go to the office to get back notebooks. Here Robert Hodgkiss, Abel Gutierrez, and Johnny Lucio look for their belongings.

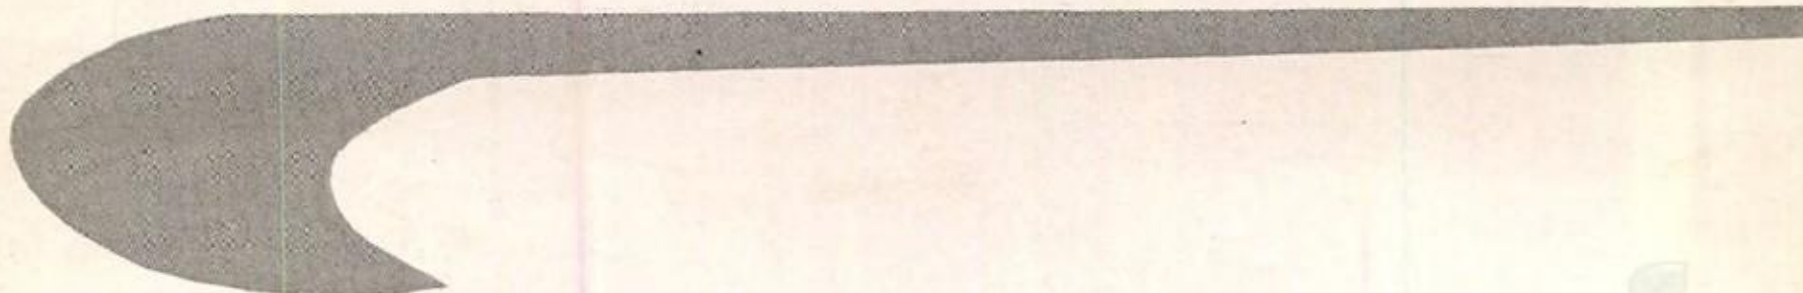

CONGRATULATIONS—Austin High students and basketball team are jubilant about a victory over the McCallum Knights. AHS extended their jinx of six games over McCallum with a 48-35 upset.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY RICKY SCHIEFFER questions Janis Jennings, murder suspect, as Judge C. A. Wheeler watches during a tense moment of the mock trial witnessed by more than 100 students and such adult dignitaries as Les Proctor; Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Baker, vice-principal and wife; and Mr. Samuel Hamlett. The students participating are those of Mr. G. C. Harris' social science classes.

ELECTION TIME AGAIN—New Student Council president, Mike Moehlman, and vice president, Sylvia Sweet, discuss spring plans with Mr. Anderson.

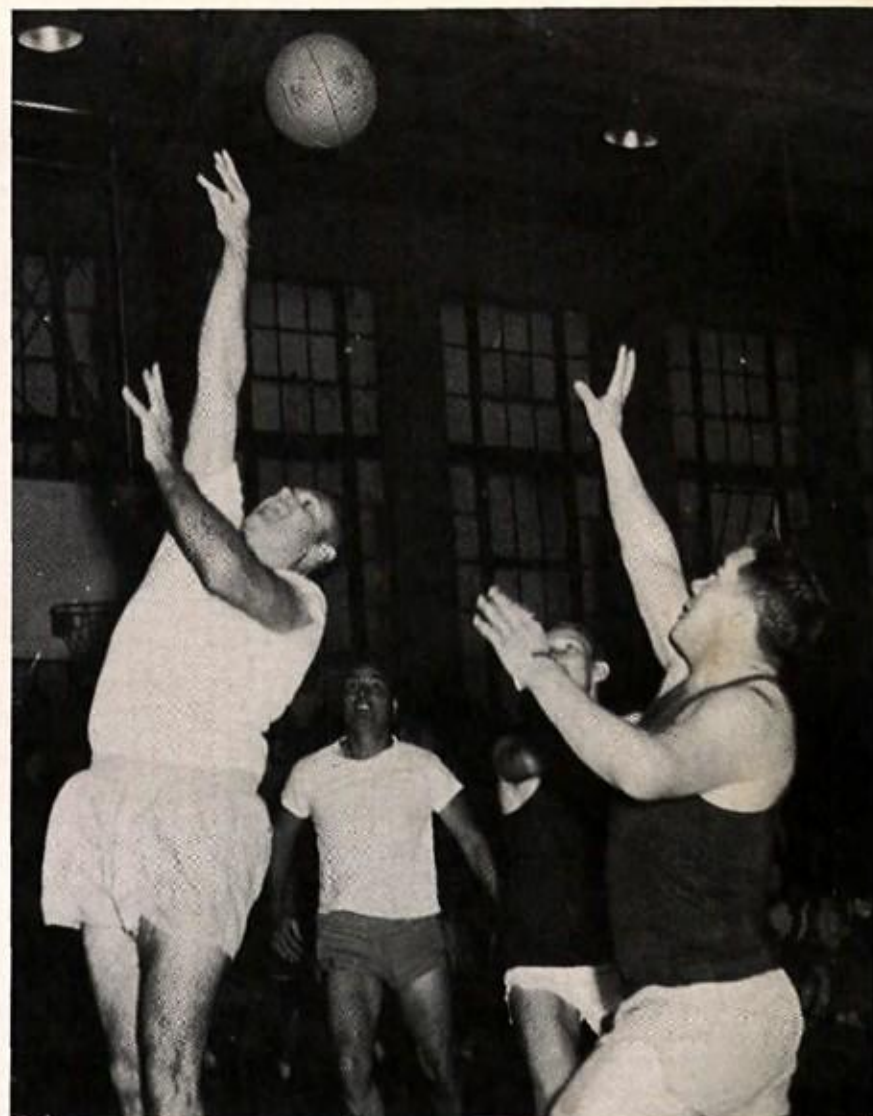

BARBARA LEONARD shows the cafeteria to one of the businessmen of Austin who visited AHS on March 8 during Business-education week. Mrs. Anderson's foods classes prepared sweetrolls and coffee for the visitors and members of the National Honor Society escorted them on a tour of the school.

BEAUTY ON PARADE—Carolyn Calvert, Austin High's most beautiful, is escorted by Austin High's most handsome boy, Coleman Proctor. The Beauty Review was held on March 17 and was sponsored by the Maroon. Second place was awarded to Betty Joan Weide and third place winner was Sunny Balderach, (at left).

FACULTY VERSUS FOOTBALLERS—An unsuccessful attempt is made by footballer Charles Weiss as he lunges to prevent Mr. Robertson from sinking another point for the faculty. The upper class gridders were defeated by the fighting faculty 11-5 in the March 14 basketball thriller.

"LADIES IN RETIREMENT"—Carolyn Bock and Pat Rusch, playing two eccentric old ladies, are charmed by Quinten Smith. Tissie Stewart, playing the maid, looks on. The play was a mixture of romance, mystery, and comedy and was presented on March 8 and 9.

We Will Have These Moments

WHAT'S FOR LUNCH?—Pat Blachley, Betty Cook, Harry Meyers, John Babcock, and John Fainter make their selections in the cafeteria line.

ROSEMARY SHOWALTER, one of Miss Manigault's 150 art students, arrange one of the beautiful and unusual exhibits from the art department on the second floor bulletin board. These exhibits were changed weekly by art students.

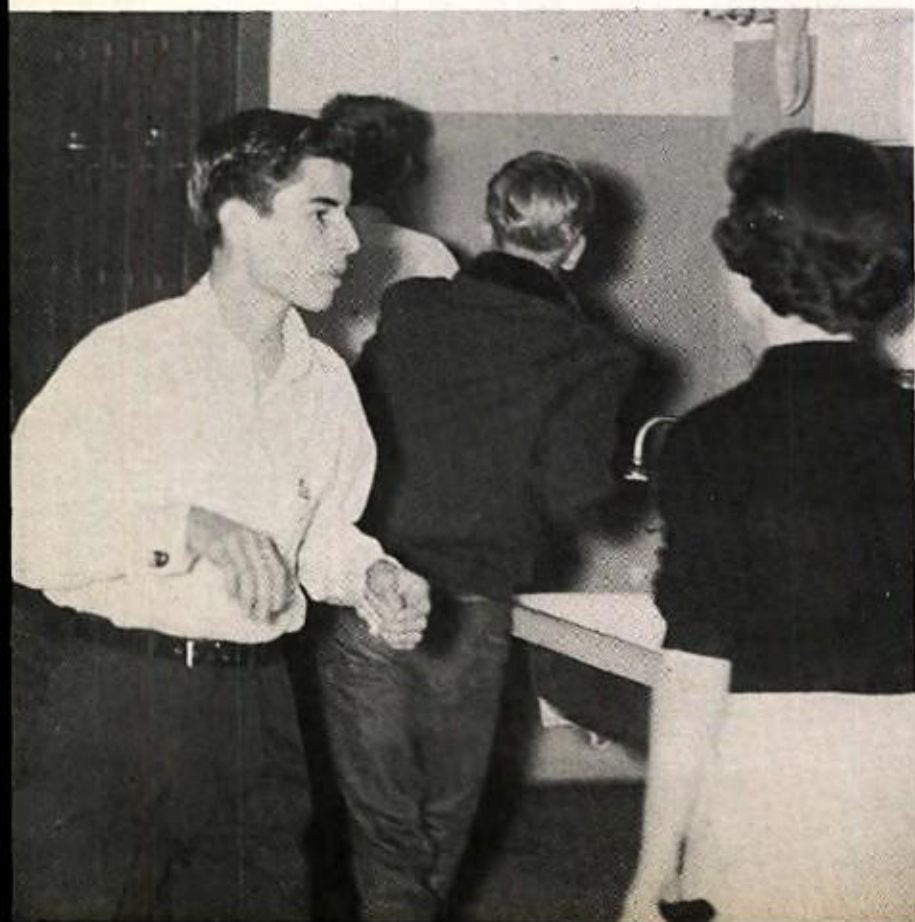

to Remember . . .

Scattered throughout all of the outstanding events in the year are the everyday happenings in a student's life that become a part of him. These are a few of the typical examples of student life.

ELIZABETH RUDE takes advantage of the tunnel under West Ave. to get to her gym class. Especially on rainy days the tunnel was very useful to students going to the gyms or band hall.

THE RACE IS ON—Students bolt down the hall to the cafeteria to be first in line. Here Johnny Trevino, Don McCullough, and Wardlow Lane have the jump on everybody else. Crowded conditions and short lunch periods contribute to the "lunch rush."

A DAY COULDN'T PASS when a student didn't see the industrious Red Dragons hard at work either on the technical or dramatic side of producing a play. At the moment Robert Peel and Quentin Smith are working on lights.

ADMINISTRATION

Principal Lipscomb Anderson

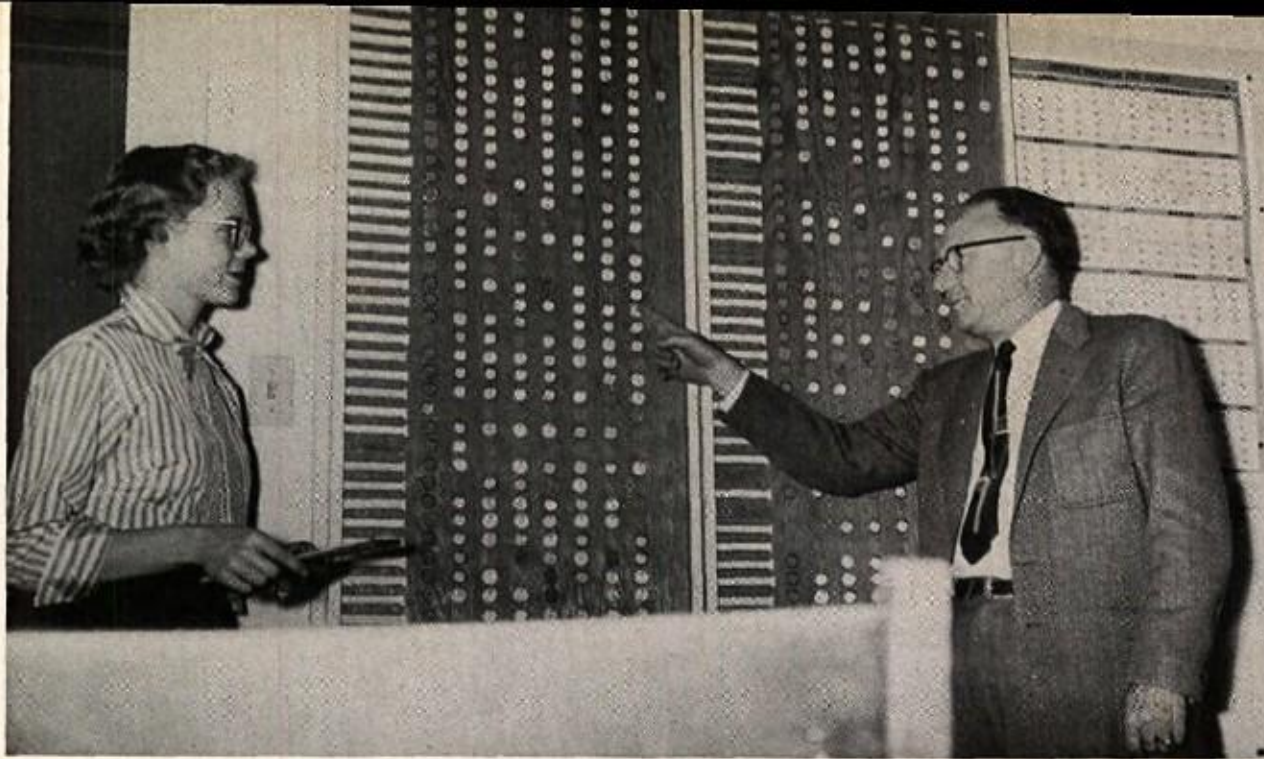

Mr. Lipscomb Anderson has been associated with Stephen F. Austin High since 1949, when he became Dean of Boys. In 1953 he was appointed principal after having served as vice-principal for three years.

Before entering the administrative field Mr. Anderson taught shop, drawing, and mathematics in San Angelo High School where he has also served as vice-principal and principal. While in West Texas he also taught engineering, drawing, and descriptive geometry at San Angelo College. He also taught extension courses for Texas Technical College.

Although Mr. Anderson was born in Ardmore, Oklahoma, he received his higher education in Texas. He was graduated from Texas A. & M. College with a B.S. degree in Industrial Engineering Education and an M.S. degree in Education Administration. He has done post-graduate work at the University of Texas.

Mr. Anderson is married and has two married daughters and a son. The Andersons derive a great deal of pleasure from their five grandchildren, according to Mr. Anderson. When at home Mr. Anderson enjoys playing the role of general handyman.

Mr. Anderson is a member of many outside organizations. He is a Master Mason, Kiwanian, and a member of the Church of Christ. He is a member of T.S.T.A., N.E.A., A.T.A., and the Association of Secondary School Principals, on both the state and national levels.

Administration

MR. ANDERSON explains to his private secretary, Mrs. Elaine Anderson (no relation) the many difficulties encountered in setting up the semester teacher schedule board.

EARLY IN THE MORNING MR. ANDERSON prepares his agenda for the day. (Whether his desk is this uncluttered at the end of the day is another matter!)

SEEING THAT ALL FACILITIES are kept in good working order is but one of the many duties of Mr. Anderson. Here he points out a place in need of minor repair to head custodian, Mr. C. E. Smith, and Mrs. Bertha Hudson, kitchen supervisor.

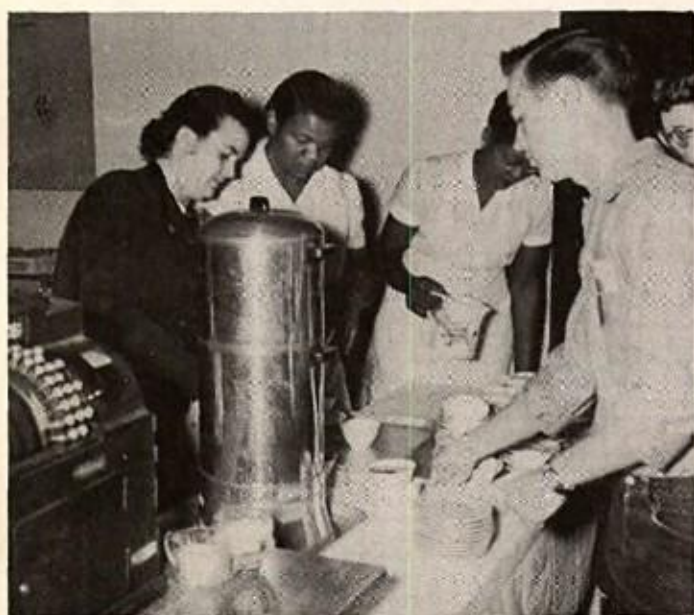

MR. ANDERSON takes time out to acquaint new bookkeeper, Mrs. Kittie Sherman, with some of her duties. Mrs. Sherman replaces Mrs. Iris Woodward and is just one of the forces that assist Mr. Anderson in keeping the school in tiptop shape.

Vice-Principal R. V. Baker

MRS. WILSON POURS coffee as fast as she can for Robert Clark to distribute to the faculty at the Christmas breakfast.

Mrs. Jane Wilson not only does an outstanding job as dean of girls but also serves the school in other activities. She acts as co-sponsor of the Student Council, supervises most school social functions, and is nurse pro tem.

Mrs. Wilson's husband has a teaching fellowship at the University of Texas. The Wilsons have an eight-year-old daughter, Lyndel, who attends Pease School.

A native Louisianne, Mrs. Wilson graduated from L. S. U. with B.S. and M.S. degrees. She taught at L. S. U. and McNeese College in Lake Charles, Louisiana. She held the title of dean of women at McNeese College and Lamar College in Beaumont.

VICE-PRINCIPAL AND MRS. BAKER AND MRS. CLARA WEISSER sit amidst cast-off shoes at the Red Jacket Formal.

MR. R. V. BAKER performs a dual role of vice-principal and dean of boys at S. F. Austin High School. He obtained his B.A. degree from Baylor University. His graduate work was done at the University of Texas, where he received a master's degree. Other colleges Mr. Baker has attended include the University of Colorado, the University of Virginia, the University of Michigan, and Columbia University.

During the war Mr. Baker served four years in the army, part of which was spent in Japan. From his experiences in Japan, Mr. Baker developed a strong interest in Japanese cooking and culture.

Dean of Girls— Mrs. Jane Wilson

Counselors

MR. ARMAND LANIER, sophomore counselor, listens as MISS LILYBETH LEWIS discusses some new material for the guidance office. MISS ADA M. OWEN is busy helping a caller.

THE COUNSELORS are a great asset to our school; without their guidance and friendly advice the students of Austin High would be unable to take as great an advantage of their surroundings as they do.

MRS. LULA B. WILLIAMS, MRS. HELEN N. PORTER, and MRS. JOHNNIE GWALTNEY review the log on the scholastic standings of each AHS student. Mrs. Williams is the attendance clerk, Mrs. Porter, the registrar; while Mrs. Gwaltney serves as a liaison agent.

Attendance-Registrar

A versatile worker is MRS. EVELYN EALY. Not only does she assist in the library but also in the attendance and counselors' offices.

Relaxing after a business session are Mrs. James P. Hart, Mr. David Lamme, Mrs. Garrie Bray, Mr. Walter Koch, Mr. Noble Prentice, Mr. Tom Graham, and Mr. John Broad.

Austin School Board

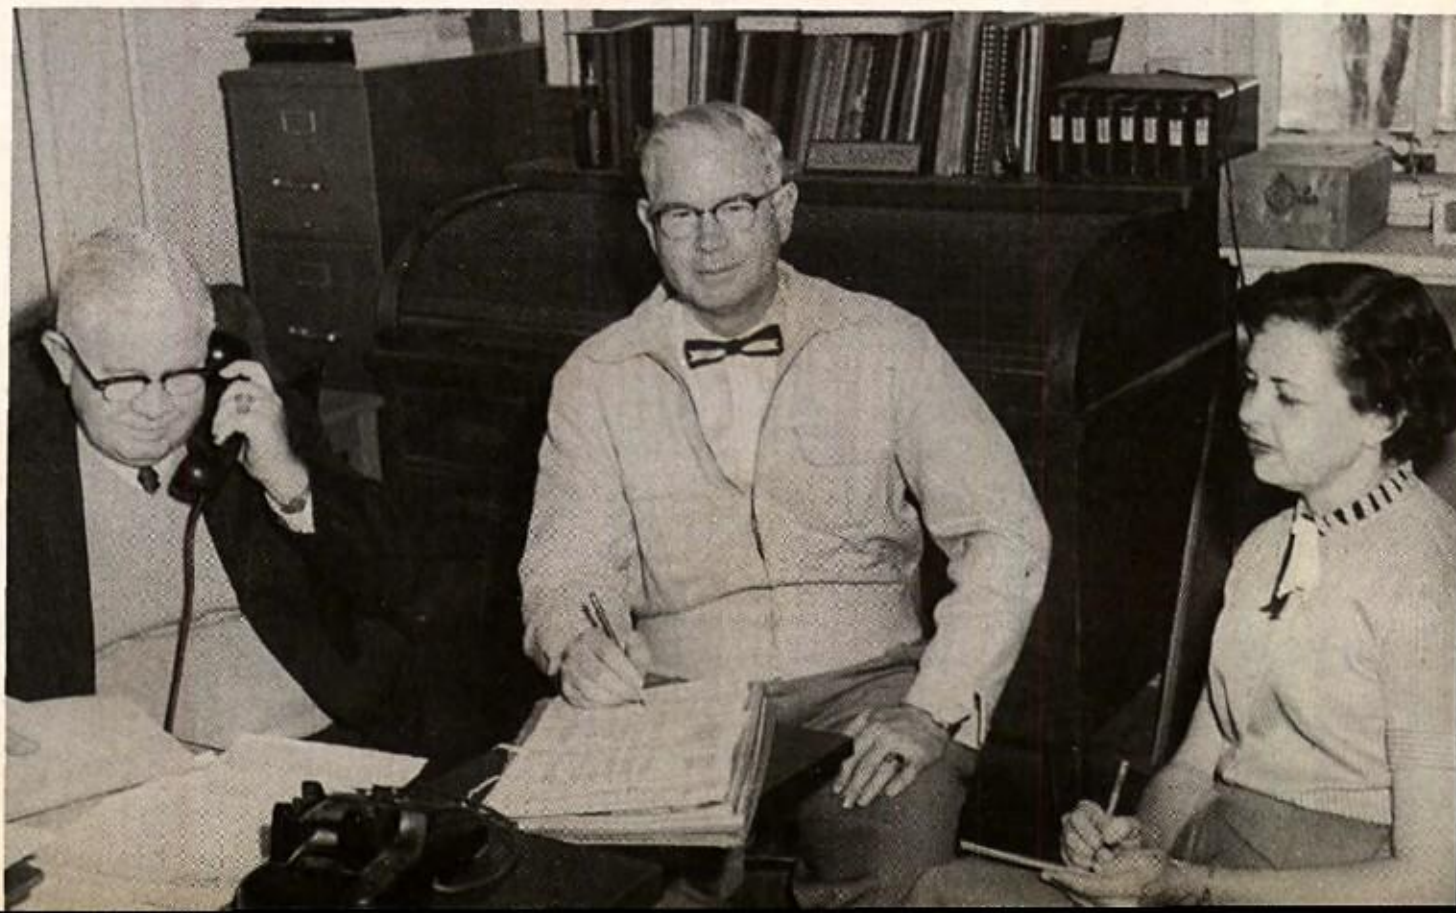

The backbone of the Austin Public School system is gathered here for one of its regular meetings. The members are civic-minded Austin citizens who have donated their valuable time for the purpose of the educational advancement of the Austin schools. Irby B. Carruth, superintendent of schools, is the lone full-time member of this important organization.

Distributive Education

In addition to being outstanding in their individual fields of mathematics and Latin, MISS LUCILLE DICKARD and MISS HELEN HILL are devotees of the music world. Miss Dickard, a member of the University Methodist Church, joins Miss Hill, of the Central Christian Church, in a choir rehearsal at the latter's church.

While explaining the technicalities of the microscope, MRS. MARGARET CADWALLADER reveals some of the mysteries of tenth-grade biology to Alicia Reddick and Ann Chiles.

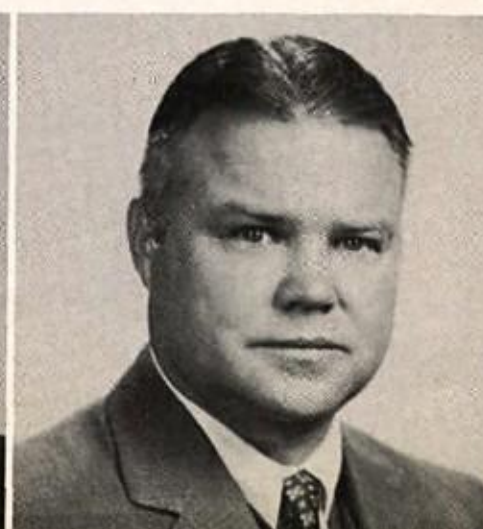

Finding time to work out a schedule for the many choral department engagements is just one of the problems which plagues MISS VIRGINIA DECHERD, director.

Maroon Band

The Stephen F. Austin High School Maroon Band, ranked among the top bands in the nation, carried out the Forward Look to its fullest extent this year in brand new uniforms.

Under the baton of Dr. Nelson Patrick, the band was ready always at pep rallies and half-time shows, adding color to any football game.

Climaxing the year's work was the annual spring concert, which was held on the evening of April 5.

Much of the credit for the success of this year's band must go to the Maroon Music Boosters, parents of band and orchestra members, who sponsored the souvenir programs and cake and magazine sales, which helped to pay for expenses.

Orchestra

The 46 piece Stephen F. Austin High School orchestra, directed by Dr. Nelson Patrick, gained a prominent place in the musical status of the school this year.

All members attended the invitational Highland Festival in Dallas, April 13, 14 and 15 this year, as well as presenting a spring assembly.

A large part of the orchestra helped to compose part of the All-City orchestra.

Honor Society

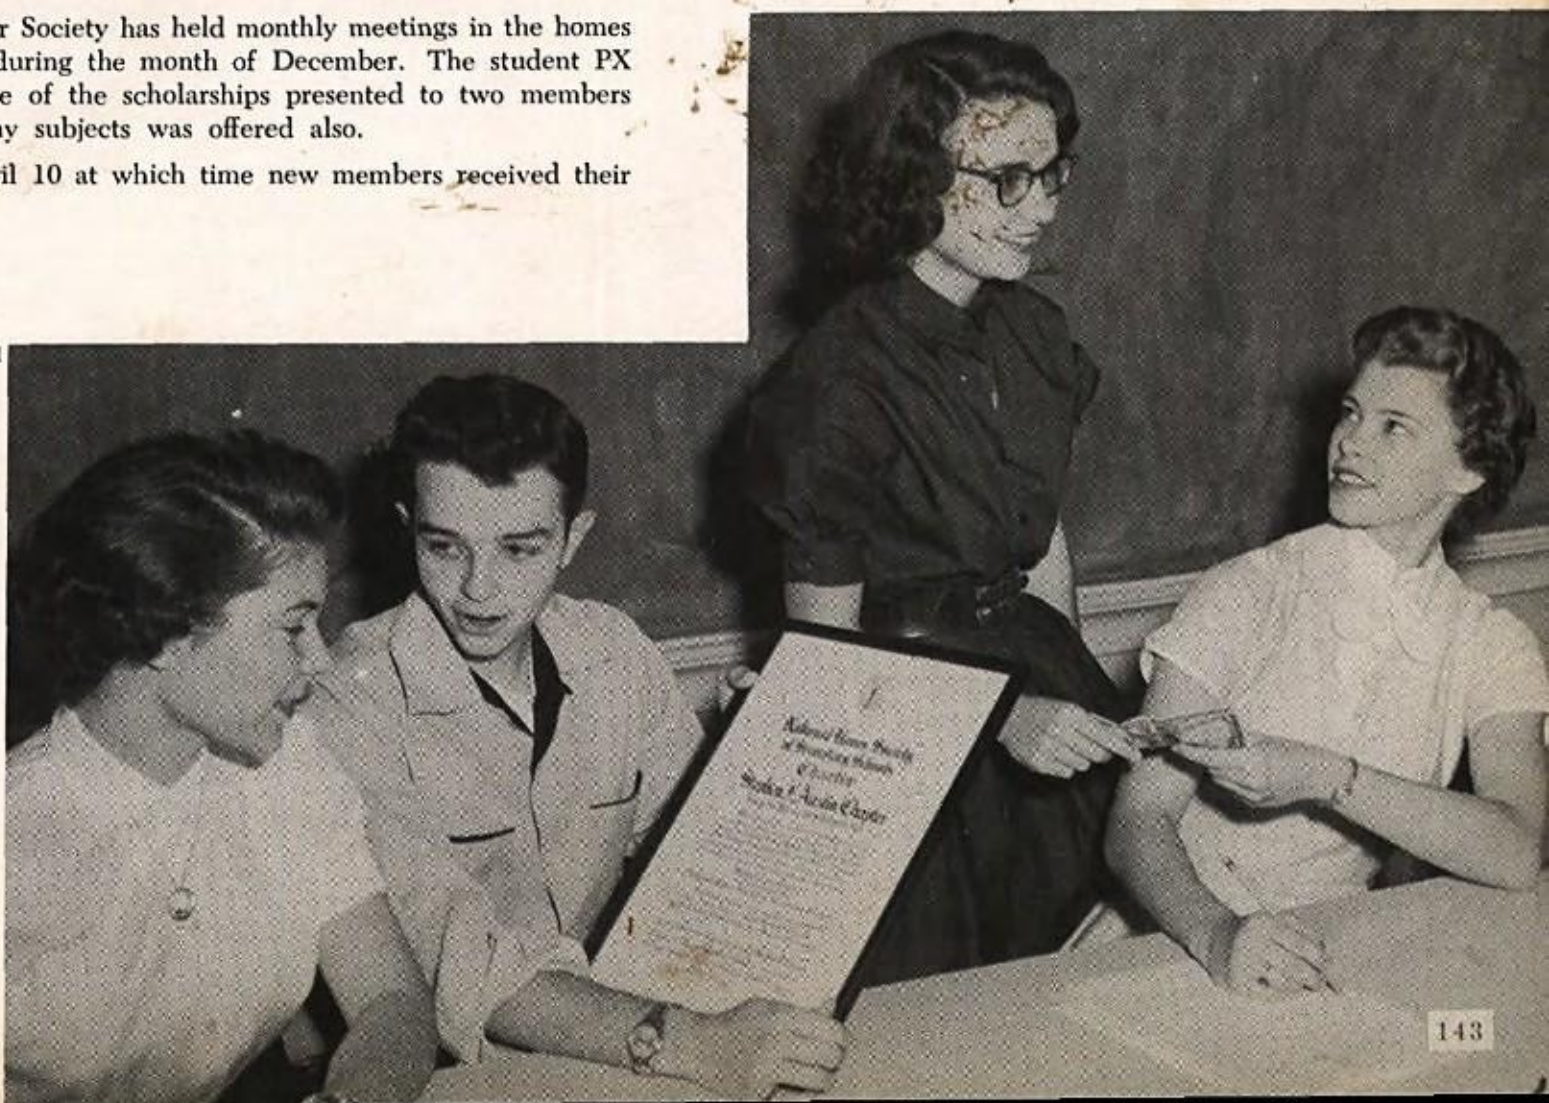

The National Honor Society is an honorary organization of students who have maintained a high-grade average throughout several semesters and have the ability to work well with others. Membership, which is a great honor, is based on leadership, scholarship, character and service, with the emphasis on scholarship.

During this year the National Honor Society has held monthly meetings in the homes of members with a Christmas party during the month of December. The student PX is one of the main sources of finance of the scholarships presented to two members in the spring. Free coaching in many subjects was offered also.

A spring banquet was held on April 10 at which time new members received their pins and were initiated.

Maroon Undergoes Change

First place in Texas for the fifth time in six years was the honor awarded this year's Austin Maroon at the Texas High School Press Association. The Austin Maroon also received an All-American rating from the National Scholastic Press Association.

Because of a new staff policy involving modernization and streamlining, the Austin Maroon, with the invaluable leadership of Mrs. Edith Kitchens, made extensive make-up and style changes. Column rules and cross bars separating stories were omitted, thus furthering the Forward Look in the school publication. Horizontal make-up was employed, as well as a modern writing style. A sans-serif headline type, more pictures, and a higher grade of newsprint were used effectively in bringing the bi-weekly, eight-page paper to the students.

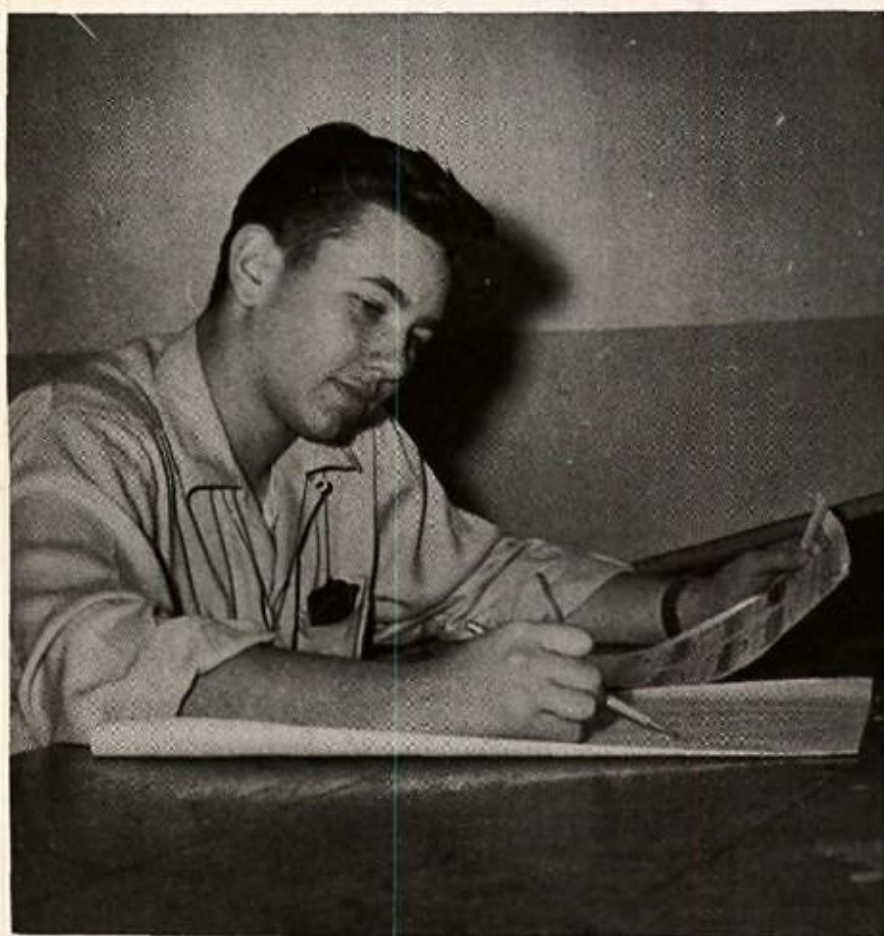

Staff policies followed this year were to mirror Stephen F. Austin High through the paper's writings and pictures, to foster school and community spirit, and to educate journalism students in practice as well as theory.

NEW QUILL AND SCROLL MEMBERS—Larry Hurwitz, Kathy Williams, Pat Brown, Tish Huffman, Allen Evans, Louise LaBauve, Linda Timmerman, Jane Ann Moore, and Bette Wilson.

The Red Dragon dramatic organization reached a new membership high this year and set another record by presenting two three-act plays before Thanksgiving: "Ladies of the Jury," a modern comedy, and "Medea," a classic tragedy.

Spring productions included the three-act comedy-mystery "Ladies in Retirement," a one-act fantasy called "John Doe," four student-directed workshop plays, and a cutting of "Little Women" for Interscholastic League competition.

Other Red Dragon activities included taking charge of the technical work for the two music festivals, the Maroon Beauty Revue, and various programs; sponsoring a booth at the Student Council carnival; and climaxing the year with the annual formal banquet.

The Junior Red Cross, made up of a representative from each advisory, was closely affiliated with the local chapter of the American Red Cross this year.

Under the co-sponsorship of Miss Louise Manigault and Mrs. Louise Tinsley, the JRC took part in the National Red Cross Membership Drive, the March of Dimes, and various other campaigns, as well as sending talent shows to the State Hospital and Bergstrom Air Base.

OFFICERS: Erin Higgins, vice-president; Jewel Melton, president; Flea Ramirez, sgt.-at-arms; Phyllis Calkins, secretary; Louise LaBauve, treasurer.

Junior Historians

To cultivate an interest in local history is the aim of the Junior Historians, sponsored by Mr. Samuel B. Hamlett. Members hear speakers and recordings, see movies, write research papers, and enjoy field trips to places of historical importance as programs for their monthly meetings.

Begun only four years ago as an affiliate of the Texas State Historical Association, the Stephen F. Austin High Chapter 123 has established a name for itself through its work in Austin and through active participation at the State Junior Historian Convention held annually in May.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y club, a four-year-old organization at Stephen F. Austin High School, is affiliated with the YMCA here in Austin, as well as the national organization.

This club is based on the principles of the development of the mind, body, and spirit.

The climactic social activity presented by the Hi-Y this year was the annual sweetheart dance, at which Jewel Melton, junior student at Austin High, was crowned sweetheart of the club.

Another event in which some of the members participated was the Hi-Y Model Legislature held at the Capitol.

Future Farmers of America

The Stephen F. Austin High School chapter of the Future Farmers of America is an organization for boys and girls studying vocational agriculture.

Members, under the guidance of Mr. Henry K. Henley, are encouraged to participate in numerous worthwhile projects, such as entering stock in livestock show and participating in livestock judging contests.

This group was largely responsible for the steps taken towards beautifying the school grounds.

Officers of the club demonstrate some of the machines used during club periods. 1st row: Mary Shelton, Virginia Gustafson. 2nd row: Betty Darsey, Lois Coleman, Carol Lynn Snowden, Lois Turner, and Jo Anne Truiett.

Organized twelve years ago by Miss Ruth Blalock, commercial instructor, the Accounting Club acquaints members with life in the business world and helps them prepare for various office careers.

Guest speakers discuss job qualifications and techniques, and movies are shown. Typing contests stimulate interest among the members. This year the Accounting Club held a style show in the auditorium with a presentation of correct business office clothes.

Members assist in publishing a county commercial club newspaper, Dollars and Sense. A needy family was adopted during the holidays and given food baskets.

For the fall carnival the Accounting Club sold A.H.S. pennants to help finance club activities.

Adda Dabba Polish Club

Serving as part social and part service organization, the Adda Dabba Polish Club sponsors many entertaining and worthwhile activities during the semester.

An unforgettable hayride and suppers in the wine cellar of El Toro were two major social affairs enjoyed by the group.

The main activity of the group, however, has been adopting a needy family and caring for the needs of its members. The club sponsored a scavenger hunt to collect clothes, presented a talent show to raise money, and contributed many other things, such as food to give the family a happy Christmas.

The enthusiasm and worthwhile purposes that this club achieves make a definite contribution to student life.

Anatomy Club

The Anatomy Club is designed to help students find out more about various scientific careers.

Activities for the meetings have consisted of such interesting things as special speakers from the finger printing bureau and the Austin Blood Bank. A movie on plastic surgery, a field trip to see the cadavers at the University, and interesting discussions about vocations in such fields as anatomical art, nursing, pharmacy, medicine, dentistry, and medical science are also a part of the club programs.

Such topics as cancer, polio vaccine, and heart disease also highlight the discussions at Friday meetings.

While Lee Mills and Eddie Sasse inspect Oscar, the physiology department's mascot, Kay Collins and Betty House check to see that the numerous senior activities have had no serious effect on their blood pressure.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, one of A.H.S.'s newest clubs, was organized only last year for the purpose of enlarging upon each individual chess player's ability at the game. This is accomplished through practice with other players and tournaments within the club.

Studying the methods and techniques of the chess masters constituted the activities of some club periods.

In the numerous tournaments held during the year, Jack Hollis has proved himself to be the champion chess player of the club.

While Allen Evans and Dick Smith participate in an exciting game of chess, Bob Massengale, Tom Bruns, Jonathan Decherd, and Sandy Kirkpatrick supervise.

Distributive Education Club

Providing for the exploration of vocational opportunities in the field of distribution, creating an abiding interest in the distributive occupation chosen, and creating a realization of the value of the occupation to the student as a worthy contribution to his home and community life are the three primary purposes of the Distributive Education Club.

Here the sponsor of the club, Mr. William C. Duncum, demonstrates some techniques of cash register procedure to aid the members of the club in their occupations. The members are Irene Moya, Janelle Petty, Shirley Murray, and Gilbert Meyer.

Discussing plans for the State Distributive Education Meeting are the officers of the club: Janie Villarreal, Ronald Jackson, Mike Edwards, Nancy Smith, Tracy Rudolph, and Dan Davis.

Sponsored by Mr. William C. Duncan, the DE Club sent delegates to the 10th annual convention of Distributive Education Clubs of Texas. Members submitted essays and projects in various contests. F.H.A. Chapter I

Chapter I of the Austin High School Future Homemakers of America organization has undertaken many worthwhile projects during the year. Some of these activities include making cookies for the service men in hospitals, sponsoring a cake and coffee booth for the school carnival, providing food for a needy family at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and planting rose bushes to aid the Student Council grounds beautification program.

Chapter I helped the other F.H.A. groups in sponsoring an International Dinner, held in the school cafeteria, where foods from nine different countries were cooked and served by the girls.

The Annual "Cheer 3,000" Christmas card drive would not have been a success if it had not been for the co-operation of all the F.H.A. groups in sponsoring it. The purpose of the drive was to collect 3,000 Christmas cards to give to the patients in the state hospitals. Chapter I served refreshments to the contest winners.

Gathered together in the Home Economics living room, officers talk over club business. They are Martha Stahl, Patsy Cocke, Nell Sturgeon, Phyllis Joseph, Jeanette Gunn, Olga Davila, and Kathy Mason.

"Too many cooks do not spoil the broth," say Club officers as they prepare to whip up some culinary delight. Shown are Alice La Fuente, Joyce Stanley, Irene Moya, Elida Leos, Elizabeth Russell, Martha Smith, Theresa Marquart, Ann Walker, and Helen Hausmann.

The Stephen F. Austin High F.H.A. Chapter IV cooperates with the total F.H.A. program. Goals of 1955-56 were as follows: developing greater understanding among the homes of the world, training girls to be more democratic in all phases of life, teaching them to realize and accept responsibilities in the home, and understanding what homemaking can contribute to their future lives at home or in business. Both group and individual activities were carried out in order to follow these goals.

Together with other chapters, this club contributed to the success of such general projects as the International Dinner, "Cheer 3,000," and F.H.A. Week.

Future Nurses Club

The Future Nursing Club, sponsored jointly by Mrs. Irene St. Clair and Mrs. Winifred Hankins, is composed of 38 members.

Caps and stripes were earned by each member according to the amount of time she worked. The purpose of the club is to teach members more about nursing and to prepare them for a career in this field.

Orientation work in Brackenridge and Seton hospitals was provided for those who plan to make nursing their future vocation. Worthwhile projects were carried out by this group, such as assisting the Cancer Society.

The purpose of the Golf Club is to improve each member's playing ability through tournaments, both in the club and against other Texas high schools.

One of the most outstanding tournaments attended by the members was an invitational tournament in Brownwood. The club has also entered into competition with Thomas Jefferson High School of San Antonio; Brackenridge High School and Alamo Heights High School, also of San Antonio; Waco High School; and Temple High.

Determined by the various inter-club tournaments, the top golfers are Tommy Wilson, Robert Dorsett, Jesse Mercado, and Hubert Kizer.

The Golf Club had a new sponsor this year, Mr. Ben "Stubby" Lewis, who recently returned from a year in Germany.

As one of the service organizations of Austin High, the Hearts Club, consisting of 52 girls, has sponsored many worthwhile projects during the year. Starting the year off with a bang, the members collected several boxes of food for a needy family at Thanksgiving time, gave a Christmas party for some children at the School for the Blind and Deaf, paid for the delivery of milk to a needy family for five months, and sponsored a school-wide clothing drive for the Austin State Hospital.

As well as thinking of the needy, the Hearts Club participated in many activities around school. The club sponsored the "Sponge Throwing Booth" at the school carnival, kept the student store for two weeks, and helped the Hi-Y decorate for the Hi-Y Sweetheart Formal.

Highlighting many of the social functions this year has been the Instrumental Music Club, alias the "Frantic Fifteen."

Although originally fifteen strong, the club has now reached an eighteen-man membership: three cornets, six saxophones, three trombones, two drums, a piano, string bass, French horn and guitar.

A self-sustaining club, the band has earned money for stands, new music, and other equipment. Members of the Instrumental Music Club wish to express their appreciation to the student body for the fine support given the band.

Abel Gutierrez stands for a saxophone solo during the dance held in the gym after the school Carnival.

Before going into an intramural tournament, officers of the club—Margie Dube, Jo Ann Raven, and Betty Cook—pause in front of the gym to pose for the photographer.

Girls' Intramural Club

The main purposes of the Girls' Intramural Club are sponsoring the Austin High girls' intramural program, learning rules of sports, officiating at the intramural games, and providing a social and recreational period once a week for members of the club.

This year the club participated in the all-school carnival and assisted in the Tri-School volleyball tournament.

Membership is limited to those girls who are particularly interested in girls' intramural activities.

With the purpose of giving aid in every way possible the Joker Club is a girls' service organization which sponsors school-wide drives throughout the year and assists needy families.

During the Christmas and Thanksgiving seasons members collected clothes, toys, and food for underprivileged families. This service was greatly appreciated, and the girls gained much by these activities.

The sponsor of the club is Mrs. E. Williams.

K. D. V. German Club

Founded in 1924, the K.D.V. German Club is one of the oldest clubs in Stephen F. Austin High.

The purpose of this club is to give students of German an opportunity to learn more about the customs and culture of the German people. Members sing "Volkslieder," play German games, and have parties in the traditional German custom and spirit.

Members have felt very fortunate in having as a member and president of their club, Wolfram Schmidt, a student from Gelsenkirchen, Germany. Wolfram had much to contribute to the club and in return gained much by becoming acquainted with American customs. Before he could finish the year, however, Wolfram was informed that his visa was about to expire; and he was forced to return to Germany but with hopes of returning as soon as possible to complete his high school education here.

Except for a year she spent in Germany, Miss Else Trenckmann has always been the sponsor of this club.

Bidding auf wiedersehen to Wolfram Schmidt (second from left) as he leaves to return to Germany are Bruce Ryan, Anna Stanislawski, Emily Hoermann, and Bobby Stengel.

Latin Club

Members of the Latin Club are big boosters of their organization, which has the oldest history of any club in Austin High. Because this popular club takes such an active part in the affairs of the school, there is always a waiting list of those interested in joining.

Programs of the weekly meetings are alternately games with a Latin flavor and reports on various elements of Roman culture. The highlight of the year's activities, however, is an annual Roman banquet with all members of the club attending in full Roman dress.

In keeping with the modern spirit of the school the club donates good-will baskets during the holiday season.

To become a full-fledged member of Le Cercle Francais one must go through an initiation period. Here Bill Koen fulfills his initiation requirements by carrying Miss Roach's tray during lunch period. Supervising the activity are Cecile Lumpkin, Emily Flachmeier, Billy Koen, Anne Taylor, and Miss Roach.

Le Cercle Francais

To enter into closer friendship with others speaking French and to provide an opportunity for the members to increase their knowledge of the French language is the purpose of Le Cercle Francais. Club members plan the programs, which feature French songs, games, films, and speakers from France. Le Cercle sponsored a popular sidewalk cafe at the AHS fall carnival. Miss Eloise Roach is the club's sponsor.

One of the purposes of the Motion Picture Operators' Club is to provide operators for motion picture machines whenever they are needed. Here the officers of the club—Kenneth Smith, John Willms, Melvin Foster, John Gardner, and Charles Everson—discuss important pointers about working the machine before they go out to operate the projectors for classes.

Motion Picture Operators' Club

The Motion Picture Operators' Club is a service organization. Its purpose is to promote better and more extensive use of audio-visual materials in school activities. The club furnishes operators of film projectors to teachers and school organizations when the boys are needed.

Mr. Woodrow Wilson is sponsor of the club.

Opera Study Club

Begun in 1947, the purpose of the Opera Study Club is to become familiar with opera stories and develop an appreciation of the artistry shown by musicians, singers, costume designers, and others involved.

Members learn to appreciate operas as a cultural art. During club periods they listen to records of operas and discuss the plot. Members occasionally travel to San Antonio as a group to attend operas there.

Phyllis Calkins, Peggy Russell, LaTrell Owens, and Carolyn Christianson discuss the opera Pagliacci during club period.

Paint and Palette Club

Newly organized this year, the Paint and Palette club, sponsored by Miss Louise Manigault, art instructor, has succeeded in providing a new service for Stephen F. Austin High activities.

The club is composed of skillful art students, who provide colorful posters and publicity for school activities and social functions. Copper émail earrings and book covers were the club's project for the school carnival in the fall.

Pan American Club

The purpose of the Pan-American Club is to develop a better understanding of the Spanish-speaking world and more appreciation for our Latin American neighbors.

Members of this club actively participated in many events, such as sponsoring a gaily colored booth which sold cascarones and piñatas at the school carnival and taking Christmas gifts to the Austin State School.

Club programs consisted of dancing, singing, piano solos, and skits.

Highpoint of the year's activities is an annual PASF state-wide convention held in Austin, during which members enter contests of all types and attend a fiesta.

Sponsor of the Pan-American Club is Miss Mary Alice Porter.

Press Club

The Austin High Press Club was reorganized in October of 1955 in order to promote interest in journalism for beginning reporters.

During the year it had many programs consisting of speakers, films, and panel discussions. Members also sponsored a booth at the first AHS carnival and furnished the carnival newspaper, Karnival Korn. Candy sales were sponsored by the Press Club as a money-raising project.

Mrs. Edith Kitchens, publications sponsor, is in charge of the club.

Science Research Club

"Scientists of Tomorrow" is appropriately applied to the members of the Science Research Club, whose purpose it is to give students with scientific interest chances to know each other and to discuss scientific advancement.

Members sponsor research projects, prepared outside of school time, to enter in science contests, such as: Junior Academy of Science, Westinghouse Search for Science Talent, Science Achievement Awards Contest, and Welch Poster Contest.

Mrs. Edna Boone is sponsor of the club.

Participating in an experiment are the officers of the Science Research Club: standing: John D. Reichert, Billy Cloud, Robert Peel; Sitting: Martha Davis, Ewalda Klein, Lynne Adams, and Judy Morehead.

SOS Club

The SOS Club carries out service projects for the school and community and promotes friendship within Stephen F. Austin High. Organized three years ago under a different name, the SOS club is sponsored by Mrs. Eva Rutledge.

Club members prepare food baskets for needy families during the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter holidays. The club also entertained children at the Home of the Holy Infancy.

Over thirty boys joined the Boys' Tennis Club this year to set a record in membership. The first activity planned this year was a singles tournament, but this was canceled so that all effort and time could be used for the fall carnival. A photography booth, sponsored by this club, was one of the hit booths of the entire carnival. The next activity of the club was a doubles tournament held early in the spring semester.

Tripholays Club

Formed during 1955-56 under the sponsorship of Mrs. Mary Gray, the Tripholays, girls' service club, is AHS's newest girls' organization. Under the guidance of Mrs. Gray and Sue Hamlett, project chairman, the forty-member club accomplished its first semester goal of helping a needy family during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons through contributions of food, clothing, and toys. Other service projects were performed during the second semester, along with money raising projects.

Boys' Tumbling Club

Tumbling can be fun!
Each Friday during club period, a group of boys got together under the instruction of Mr. Milton O'Dell to tumble. While some learned the fundamentals, others mastered more advanced tricks.
"Flip-flops," "round-offs," and "back-bends" became familiar expressions defining these tricks.

Organized this year, by Mr. Wilbur Watford, the World Affairs Forum, as its name implies, has as its purpose to promote student interest in world affairs and current events.

Club activities centered around three types of programs. Panel discussions gave club members a chance to discuss and defend their views on topics of current interest. Guest speakers were invited from the University of Texas and the school faculty and student body. The speakers, who were very popular with the 28-member club, gave interesting first-hand accounts of travel, current events, and politics. Movies were also shown. The World Affairs Forum was asked to form a panel to be presented on the "World at Your Doorstep" television program.

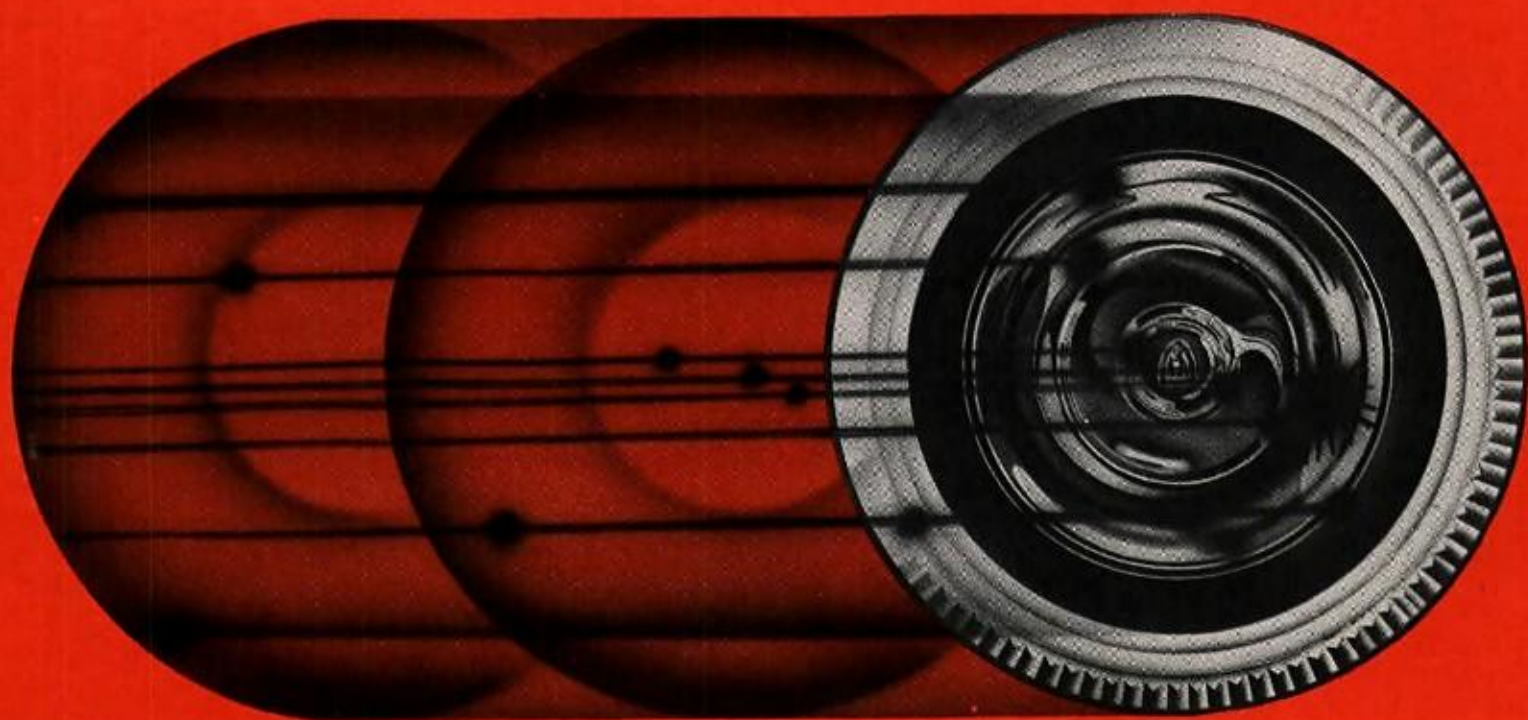

Money-making enterprises were the construction and management of a lung-power booth for the fall carnival.

ATHLETICS

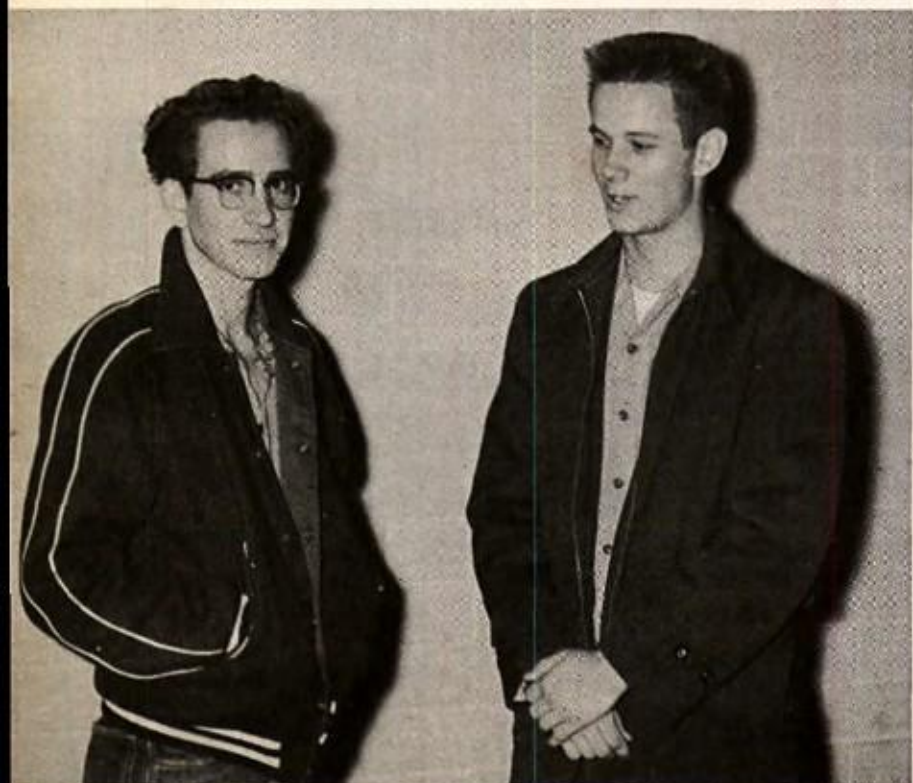

A pre-season discussion by Austin High's fine coaching staff is pictured here as line coach GLEN SWENSON and backfield coach TRAVIS RAVEN talk to head football coach JIM TOLBERT about the prospects of the 1955 Maroon squad.

Coaching Staff

Managers

KEITH RHEA and AARON CLUCK, Maroon football managers, have been two important segments in the Maroon football squad this season. As Keith puts it, the job's "nothing spectacular," but it's a necessary one.

Aaron Cluck, a senior and one of the co-managers, became interested in the job of team manager through a friend. Aaron has served in the position for two years. His first experience was when he managed the B-team during the '54 season.

His partner in managership, Keith Rhea, is also a senior. Keith became manager after breaking a leg playing varsity football during the '54 season.

The Austin-Statesman's choice for the 1955 All-District football players included three Austin Maroon squadmen.

Pictured are Rex Nichols, first string defensive tackle; David Pollard, hard running three-year letterman back, who was selected as a first-string offensive halfback; and Charles Weiss, a junior, who was doubly honored, being named to both offensive and defensive teams.

ALFRED LEDESMA (B)—A defensive ace, Ledesma excelled in making difficult tackles, regardless of his light weight. He was all-city defensive halfback, first team.

DAVID POLLARD (B)—Pollard held the distinction of being the only three-year letterman on the squad. He achieved all-district halfback, first team, and all-city halfback, first team.

Knights Edge SFA, 9-0

In a highly defensive contest, the Stephen F. Austin Maroons opened what promised to be an exciting season but were dropped by the McCallum Knights, 9-0, in House Park before a near-capacity crowd.

Neither team seemed to get its offense going as the ball continually changed hands until the last five minutes of the game when McCallum blocked a Maroon kick on the one, rebounding the ball into the goal post to give the Knights a 2-0 edge. Seven plays later, Jack Madden crossed the Austin High goal for the only touchdown of the game. The conversion was good, and the score read McCallum 9, Austin 0 when the game ended.

The Maroons annulled a McCallum threat when sophomore Mike Cotten recovered a fumble on the Austin High one-yard line in the first of three scoreless quarters. The Maroons, with the fine ground-pounding of fullback Alton Greeven and halfback David Pollard, twice marched inside the Knight 20-yard line only to be halted.

JOHN FAINTER (E)—Being one of the only returning ends from this year's Maroon squad, letterman Fainter has a big job ahead of him.

JAMES WIER (T)—Letterman Wier's ponderous tackling continually aided the Maroons in defensive work. An all-city defensive tackle, he will be one of the powers on the '56 line.

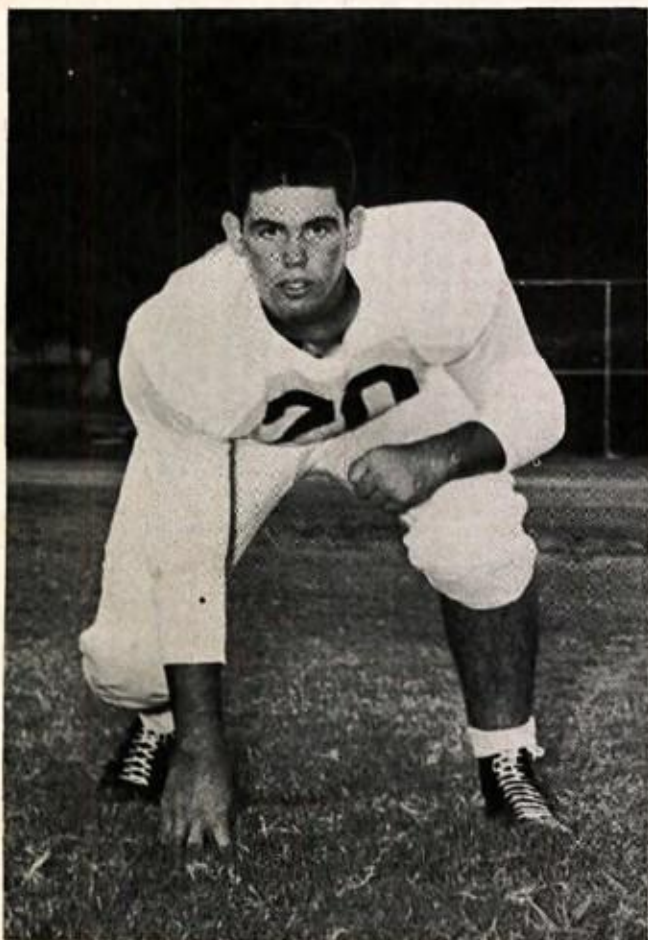

JOHN LUCIO (E)—Lettering this past season, John snagged many a pass to boost the Maroons in the touchdown department.

JACK COOK (T)—The experience gained by Cook on this year's team should make him a stalwart on the line for next year. Jack was another of the main string who lettered.

HARRY LEINBACH (C)—Harry failed to see much action this past year, but the hustle he showed will put him high on the active list for the 1956 Maroons.

ARTHUR DRISKELL (G)—Besides his power on the line, Arthur's talented toe was called upon to make extra points and to do the kick-off chores. Driskell lettered also.

Linebacker Charles Weiss attempts to halt David West, a Wichita Falls back, as Bob Nunis, Doug Chilton, and Alton Greeven close in. West was one of the Coyotes' top ground gainers as they defeated the Maroons 45-7.

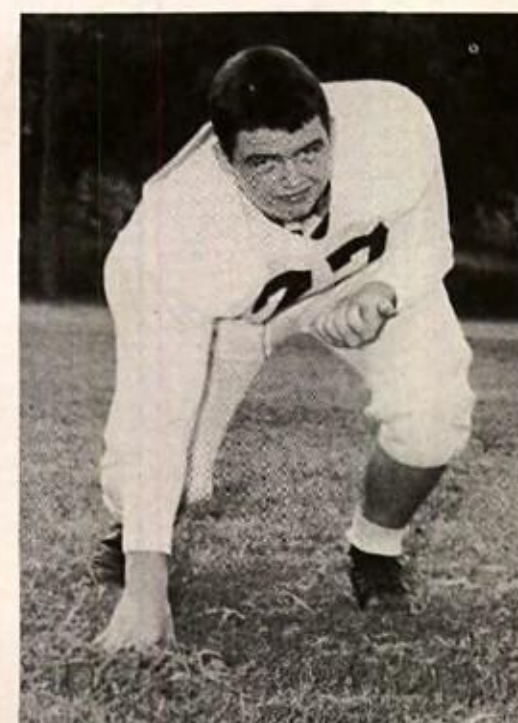

ALBERT HERNANDEZ (T)—One of the largest linemen on the team, Albert gained experience this year and will be a valuable boost in the future for the Maroons.

HARRY MEYERS (G)—Meyers served the team as a reserve this past year and bolstered the spirit of the team with his inexhaustible pep.

BOB BIGGS (G)—Biggs, also a reserve this year, should see plenty of action in the future.

HEINIE PATE (T)—Pate's first year at SFA gave him ample experience to put him on the promising player list for the next two years. Letterman.

AHS Beaten by Ray In Second Battle

Journeying to Corpus Christi, the Stephen F. Austin Maroons met W. B. Ray with a spirited brand of ball which finally gave way to the classy Texans, 26-7.

The Maroons wanted this one badly and made it clear by scoring the first tally of the game just seven plays deep in the first quarter. David Pollard crashed over from the six, Alton Greeven made the extra point, and the Maroons went ahead for the time being, 7-0.

After this surprising opening thrust, the Maroon offense jammed on the ground and in the air, as pass interceptions set up two Ray touchdowns.

This was the first time since 1950 that the Stephen F. Austin football team has been able to score against the mighty Corpus Christi Texans. In this second tilt of the season, the Maroons showed vast improvement from the first game, even though the score was so contrastingly in Ray's favor, 26-7.

Pollard played an excellent game and handed in a consistent punt average of 41.1 yards.

MAD SCRAMBLE—David Pollard, 33, is tackled after picking up nice yardage against McCallum. Charles Weiss, center, laid a key block for Pollard. Alton Greeven, 32, is seen rushing to the aid of his teammate. San Jacinto won the peculiarly played contest, 7-4, amid protests from Austin officials about the poor playing conditions.

BILL DUFF (G)—With one more year to go, Duff should be one of the giants in the line during the coming season.

NICK HUNTZIS (G)—A cracker-jack hustler, Nick was an able-bodied Maroon reserve during the past season.

Long Jinx Is Broken as Rebels Fall, 12-0

After a jinxing sixteen consecutive games without a single win, the Maroons broke into the winning column by downing the Travis Rebels of Austin, 12-0.

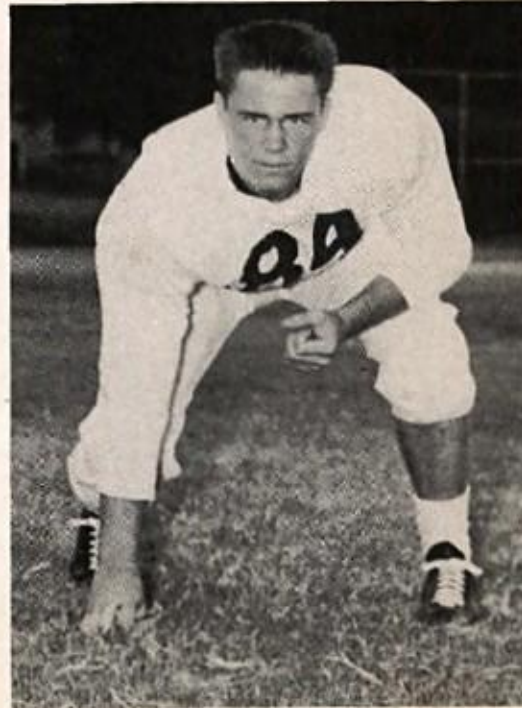

Fumbles played a prominent part on the rain-soaked field, hampering both squads' ground attacks. On the second play of the second quarter, David Pollard took a deep pitch-out around right end and rammed his way for the first touchdown. Later in the same quarter, the Maroons, looking better offensively than they had all year, pushed 55 yards in 10 plays for the second and final tally of the game. Pollard, handing in another fine game this year, again crashed in on pay dirt for the Maroons. Both extra-point tries were unsuccessful. Mike Cotten, sophomore back, showed a promising future in leading the Maroon teams in future year by his splendid running.

The Travis squad was not running under full power in this game, as their star quarterback, Xavier Guedea, was out of the game due to injuries as well as other key players on the line-up.

DON RYLANDER (B)—Rylander sat out most of this season, but he should see some active duty in the '56 backfield.

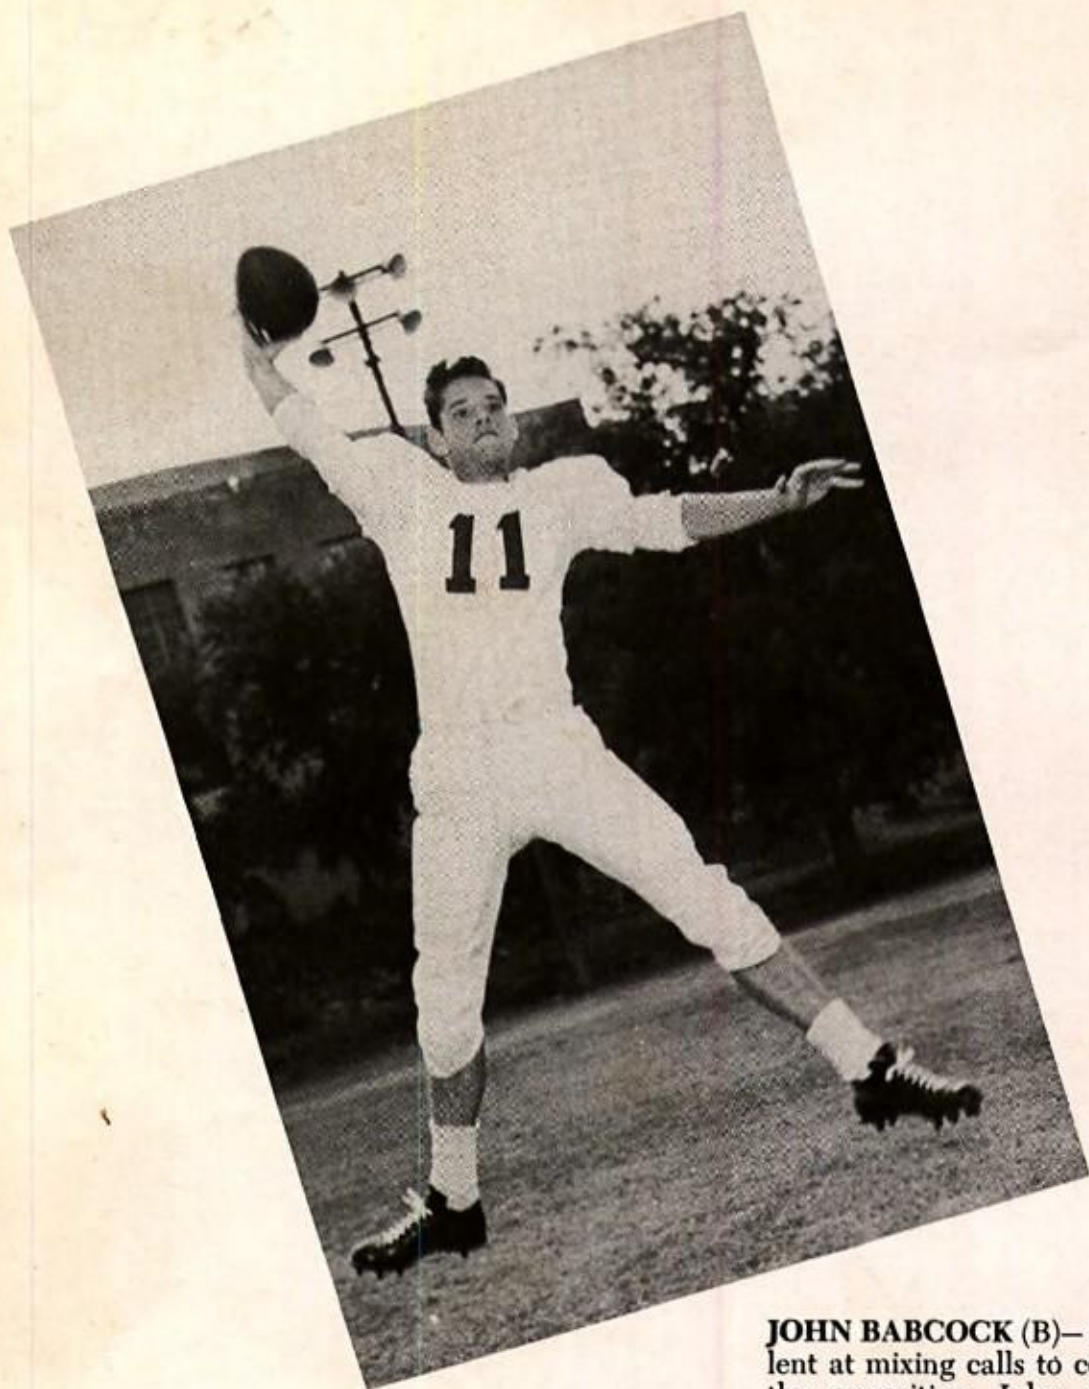

SAM WOOLSEY (B)—With the experience Sam gained on this year's team, he should be a valuable asset to next season's squad.

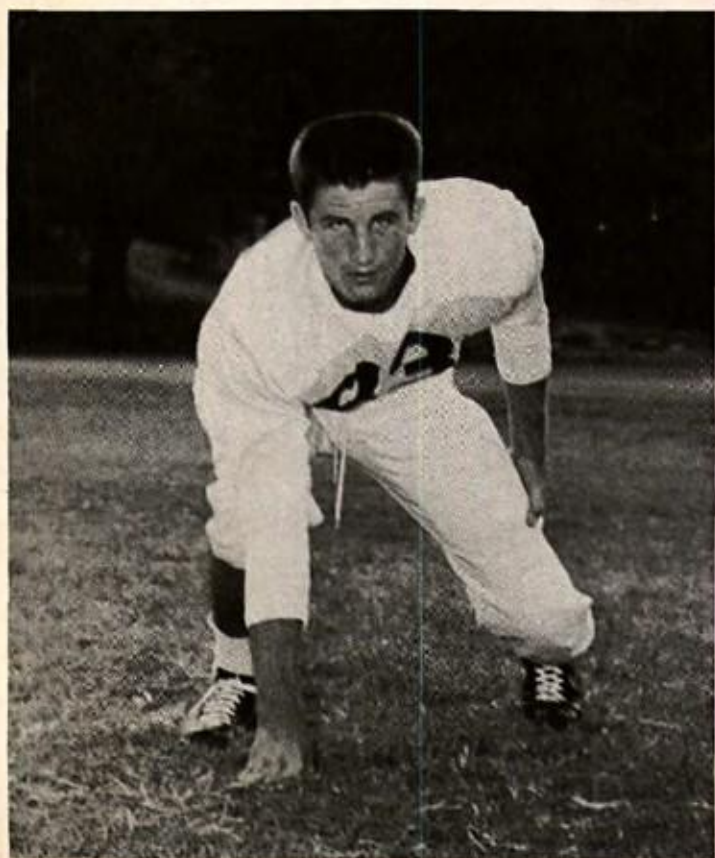

Houston Club

Whips Maroons

JOHN BABCOCK (B)— Excellent at mixing calls to confuse the opposition, John piloted and captained the Maroons with professional poise. Babcock, a letterman, was selected all-city quarterback, second team.

DOUGLAS CHILTON (E)— Stamina and perseverance were the good marks of swift-footed Douglas Chilton, for he was always in there hustling. Doug lettered and was chosen all-city end, second team.

ALTON GREEVEN (B)— Alton co-captained the Maroons in fine style and made consistent yardage from the fullback position. Greeven lettered and was elected all-city fullback, second team.

Jeff Rally Limits SFA To 7-7 Tie

The Stephen F. Austin Maroons bested the Jefferson Mustangs on October 8 at House Park in every department statistically, but failed to gain more than a 7-7 tie.

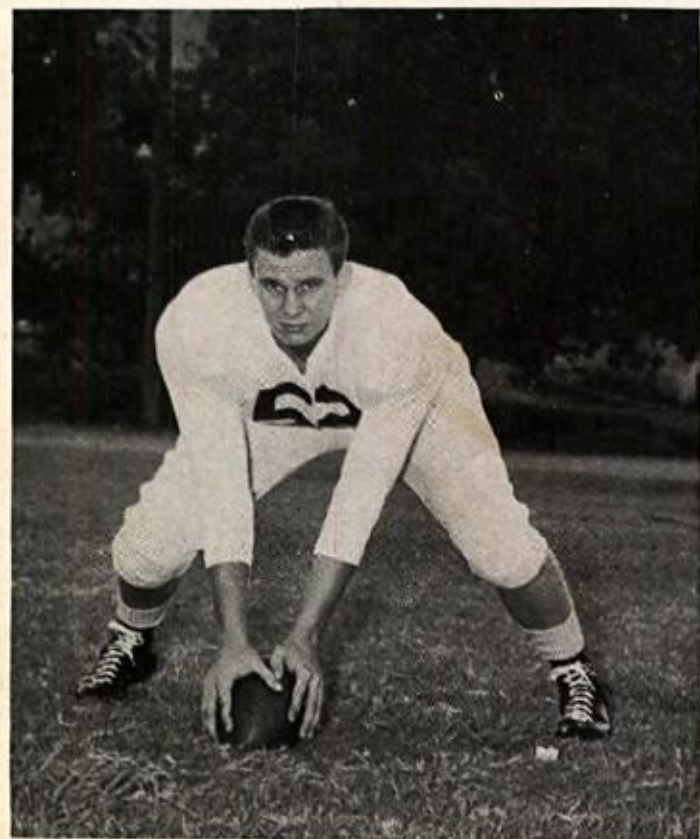

Sophomore Mike Cotten was credited with his first touchdown in high school, the only Crimson score of the game. The tally culminated a second quarter drive. Arthur Driskell converted a vital point, giving the Maroons a 7-0 edge.

The Mustangs evened the score midway in the final stanza as Deene Gott, Jefferson quarterback, plunged over from the one. The extra point was good thus leaving the game in a 7-7 deadlock.

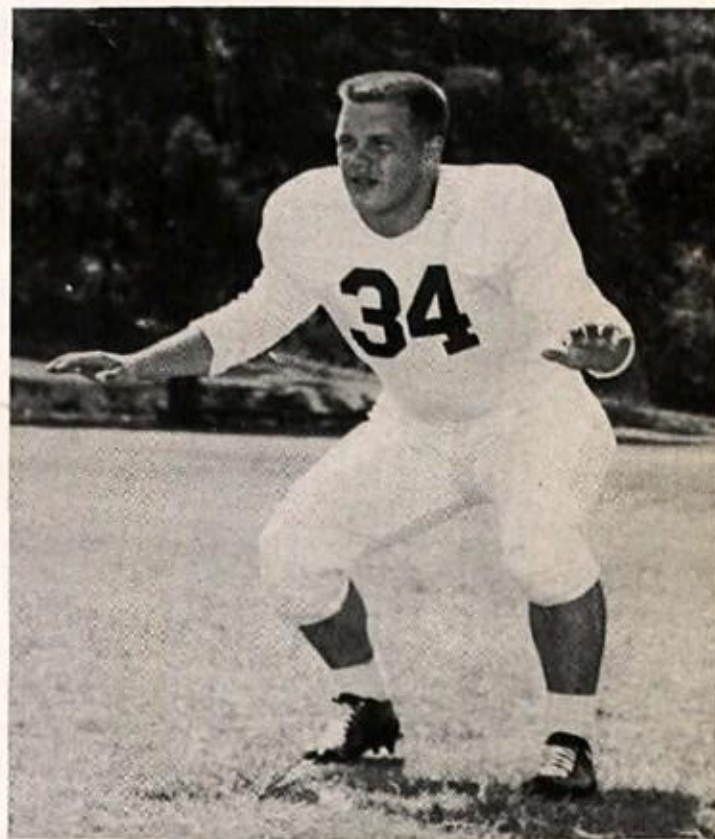

Threatening several times during the game, the Maroons made a last desperate attempt to score in the final minutes of the game by carrying the ball to the four-yard line. However, four downs wasn't enough time for Austin to score, and the tilt ended in a tie.

Z. T. GRIFFIN (T)—Z. T.'s skillful tackling was one of the big life-savers for the squad. Griffin is a two-year letterman.

MACK BREEDLOVE (C)—Mack's dependability in making a good pass from center made him one of the outstanding players on the '55 team. Mack was all-city center, second team, and a letterman.

CHARLES WEISS (G)—Even with a discouraging score on the board, Weiss never slowed down. A letterman, Charles will be the backbone of next season's line. Charles won distinction as all-district defensive and offensive guard and as all-city defensive and second team offensive guard.

Eagles De-Feathered By Austin Onslaught

The Stephen F. Austin Maroons displayed their best offensive showing of the season in trouncing the Brackenridge Eagles of San Antonio, 19-0. It was Austin's second victory of the year.

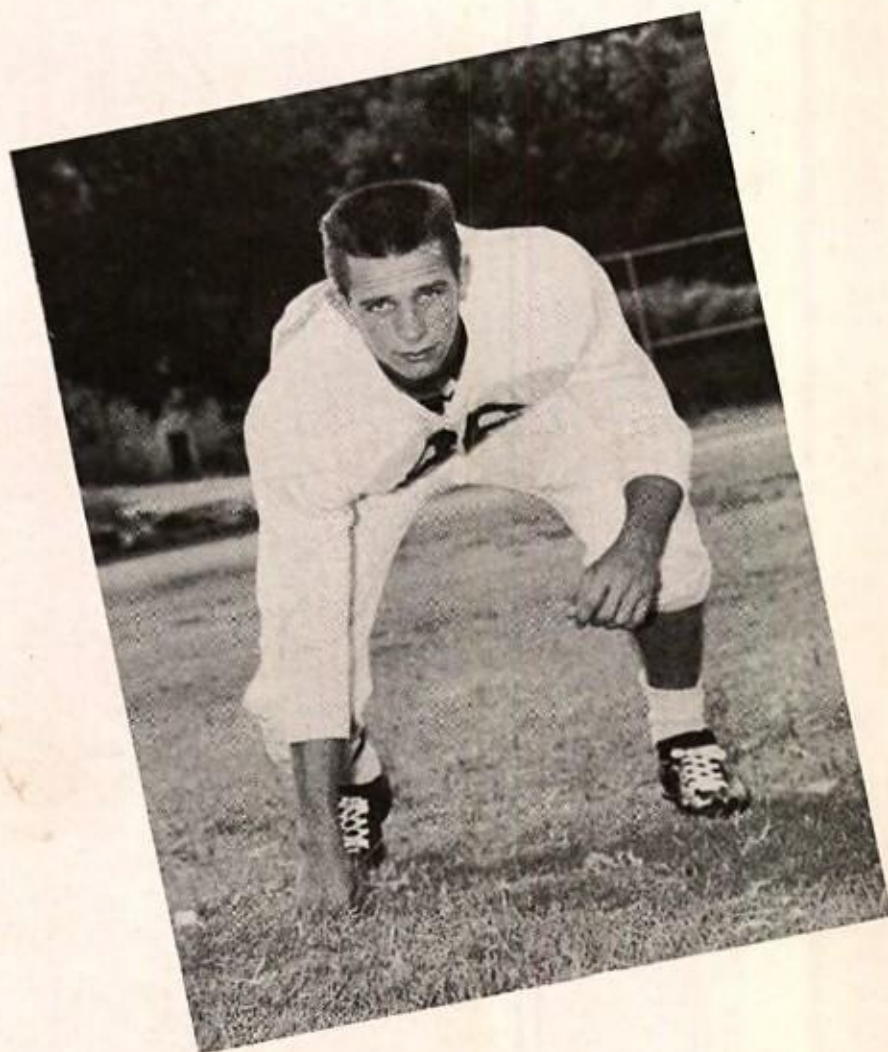

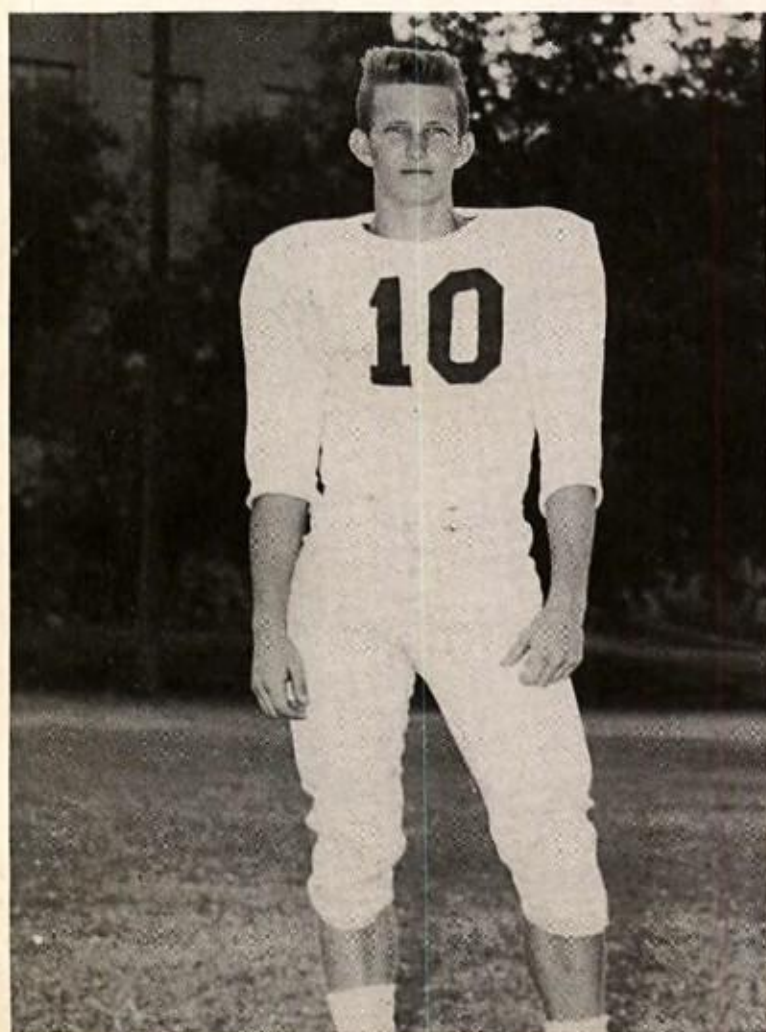

A unique combination of passing and the ability of the Maroons to take advantage of a few breaks accomplished the victory. Austin found itself almost completely stymied on the ground, managing only 41 yards, while covering 107 yards through the air.

After a 70-yard first period march, Mike Cotten took the ball across the Eagle goal from the one to score the first tally of the game.

The Crimson's desperate attempt to score in the remaining seconds of the first half paid off when quarterback John Babcock tossed a 21-yard touchdown to pass to end John Lucio with just five seconds remaining on the clock. Arthur Driskell converted to make the score 13-0.

The last Maroon TD came in the fourth quarter when sophomore Don Jester popped up and intercepted an Eagle pass, returning it 39 yards for the score.

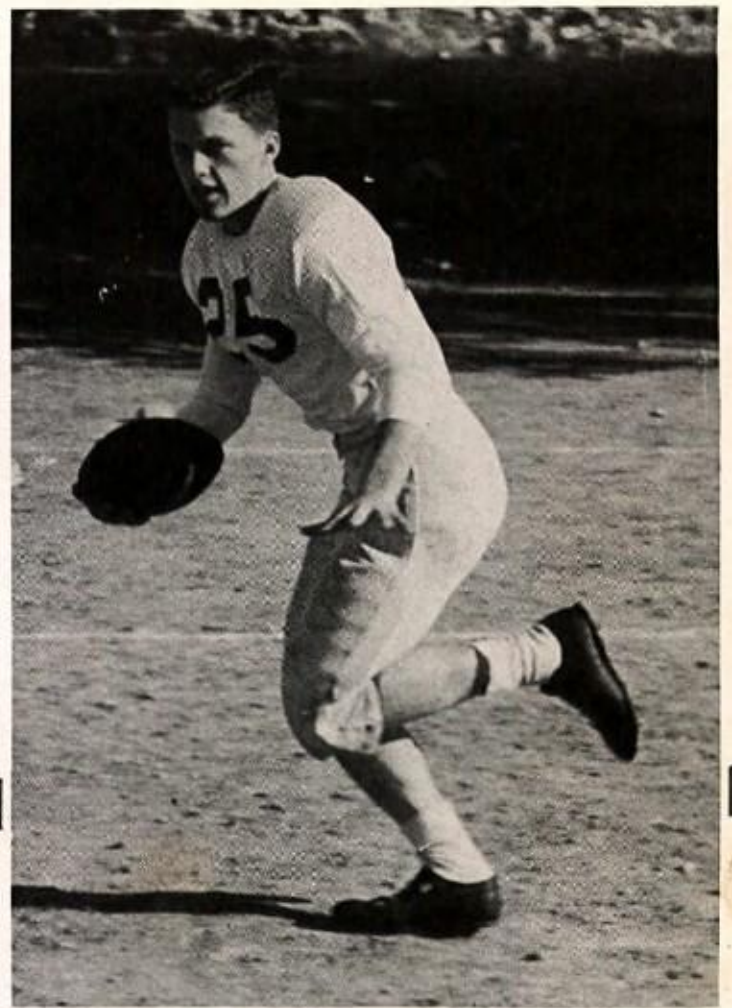

An unusual occurrence in the game took place in the first quarter when the ball twice changed hands on fumbles in the first three minutes.

RICHARD BUERGER (E)—Big Richard's pass-snatching and hard running netted him several minutes of action during the latter part of the season as an end. He is a fine potential for '56. Letterman.

BILL GATTIS (B)—Starting the year as a quarterback, Bill was shifted to halfback near the end of the season where he made consistent ground gains.

David Pollard, Maroon halfback, raised the hopes of Austin's keyed-up followers when he turned in a 75-yard touchdown run against the Tyler Lions. The run, the longest in three years for the Maroons, pulled Austin's deficit to 14-7.

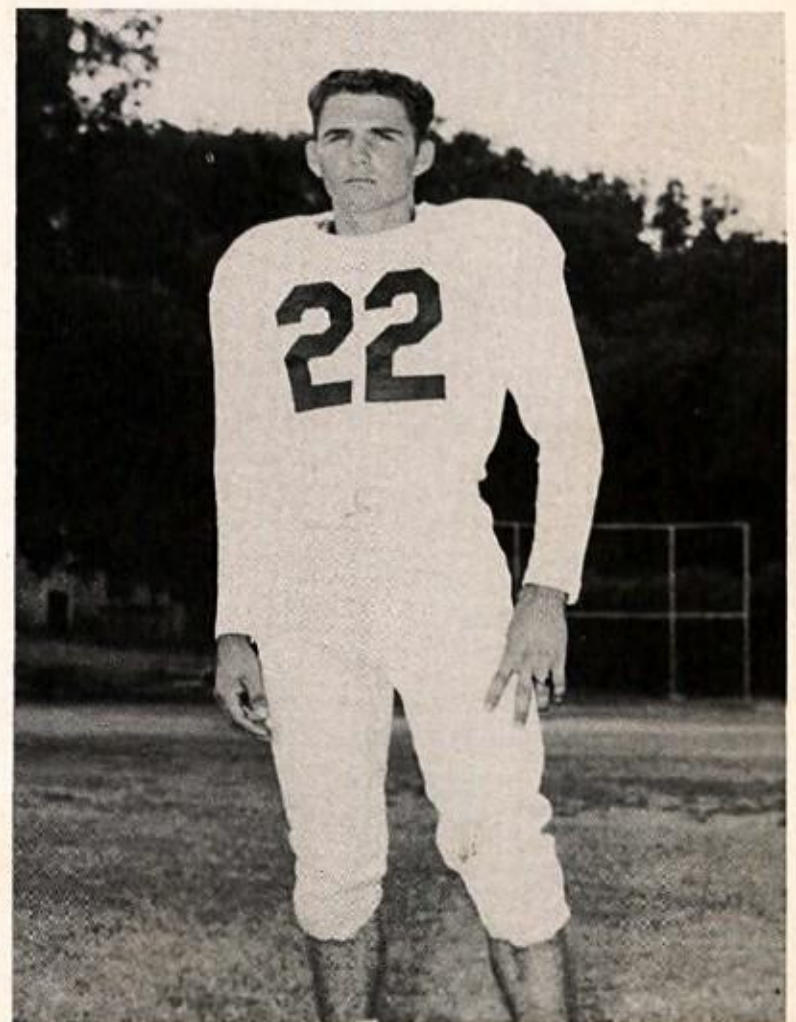

MIKE COTTEN (B)—Mike's first year in high school football was a success, for he was one of the Maroons' top ground gainers and made all-city halfback on second team.

SAM OLQUIN (C)—Sam, up from the B-team, saw little action this year, but he should be a regular on next year's squad.

LONNIE REED (B)—Reed, one of the fastest backs on the squad last season, should see plenty of action in '56.

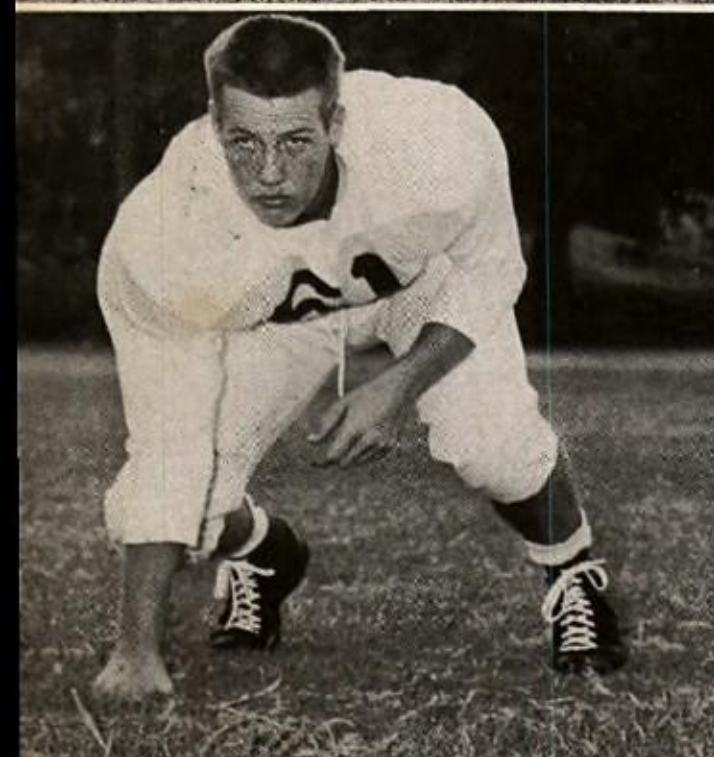

District Opener Sees Tyler Rip SFA, 21-7

Aroused by the spirit of its backers, the Austin Maroons played their hearts out before being subdued by the mighty Tyler Lions, 21-7, at House Park, October 22.

Austin smothered a Lion threat in the second quarter by holding Tyler inside their ten-yard line on downs. Behind 14 points, the Maroons came back the second half by setting David Pollard loose on a 76-yard jaunt for the only Austin score.

Driskell converted to put the Maroons within seven points of the team rated first in the state. Soon after, however, the Lions started rolling again and went on to score another tally before the game ended.

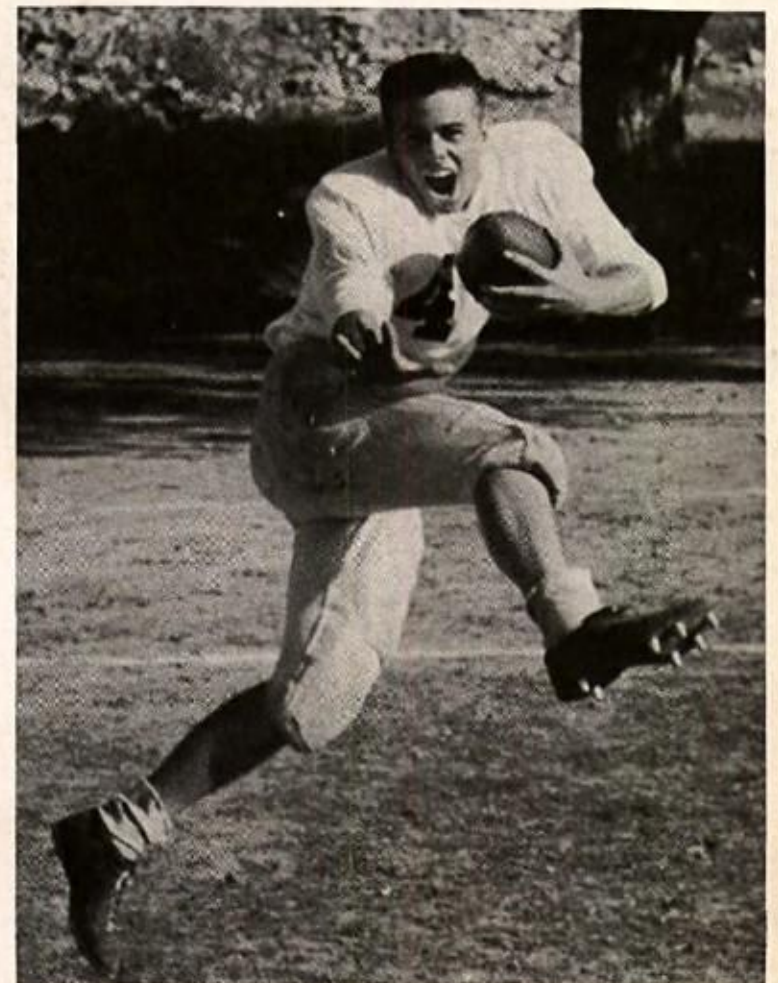

Each member of the Maroon squad put everything he had into the game. Veteran gridders—Rex Nichols, Charles Weiss, Alton Greeven, and John Babcock, together with sophs Don Jester and Mike Cotten—turned in exceptionally good performances.

REX NICHOLS (T)—It helps to be big to play football, and Rex is an excellent example of this fact, for he was the largest man on the '55 squad. Nichols was an all-district defensive tackle and all-city defensive and offensive tackle.

JERRY SCARBOROUGH (T)—Scarborough, the Maroons' heaviest lineman, will be a big help in plugging up defensive holes next season.

JAY HARKINS (T)—Jay helped the Maroon squad out this year with his determined drive and power.

BOB NUNIS (B)—Bob's exuberance and hustle placed him high on the reserve list; he is likely to be a starter next season.

AHS Drops Close Battle To Highland Scots, 20-14

In a nip-and-tuck battle on a visiting field, the Stephen F. Austin Maroons were dropped by the Scots of Highland Park in Dallas, 20-14.

The Scots jumped ahead 6-0 in the first period of play, but the Maroons promptly took the lead in the second quarter when Alton Greeven pounded over for the tally. Arthur Driskell made the advantageous extra point.

The Crimson eleven, behind 20-7, rode the outstanding passing arm of John Babcock 62 yards for the final score of the game. To climax the drive, Babcock tossed an 18-yard pass to Richard Buerger for the score. Driskell again converted to bring the final bit of scoring to a close.

Rushing honors for the night were taken by Mike Cotten with 46 yards to his credit.

DON JESTER (B)—Rough as they come, Jester was one of the hardest tacklers on the squad and did an outstanding job his first year. Don was chosen all-city linebacker, first team.

JERRY SPAIN (E)—Spain rendered service to the team on both defense and offense and stopped many an opponent from making long gains. He was an all-city offensive end, and an all-city safety, second team.

GREG GANNAWAY (B)—Up from last year's B-team, Greg used his swift feet to place him on the active backfield reserve list to earn his letter.

Wichita Falls Runs Past Austin Maroons, 45-7

The rugged running Wichita Falls Coyotes dealt the Maroons their worst blow of the season in House Park, November 5, by a score of 45-7.

The Coyotes, ranked fourth or better in the state by the AAAA poll, made a slow start and scored only two touchdowns the first half, making the score 12-0. The third quarter saw a looser game with the Wichita Falls team picking up two TD's. Immediately after this, however, the Maroons executed their best offensive play of the game when junior back Bill Gattis took the kick off and returned the ball 72 yards before being brought down on the Coyote five. Greeven took the pigskin across and Arthur Driskell converted to bring the score to 25-7.

Alfred Ledesma and Don Jester handed in excellent jobs in the defensive department while David Pollard booted out a 47.5-yard punting average, which kept the Coyotes from dealing out any more damage than they did.

A typical varsity workout is pictured here as the Maroons grind away in preparation for a coming game. Several days of scrimmage precede each football contest.

AHS Gridsters Battle Waco Tigers To 7-7 Tie in District Grand Finale

The Stephen F. Austin Maroons, in their final game of the season battled to their second tie of the year, 7-7 in Waco, November 18, with the Waco Tigers.

The arch-rival Tigers started off with a bang with a 42-yard pass and a touchdown six plays later by Waco back Poston. Austin, trying valiantly to finish out the season in victory, launched a drive sparked by the ground pounding of David Pollard and the speed of Bill Gattis and was climaxed by John Babcock, quarterback who took the ball across from inside the one with a quarterback sneak. Tackle Arthur Driskell added the extra-point to tie the score.

Rex Nichols and Charles Weiss did excellent defensive work, and David Pollard, Bill Gattis, and Alton Greeven netted most of the yardage in the Maroon rushing department.

This game placed Waco and Austin in a deadlock in the cellar for the District 5-AAAA.

John Babcock, Coach Jim Tölbbert, and Alton Greeven talk over season strategy for the Maroon football squad. Babcock and Greeven served as co-captains for the 1955 season.

Halfback Gary Craig sweeps around right end to make lengthy yardage for the Maroon B-team. Isidro Gonzales, 32, and Manuel Estrado, 85, are leading interference for Craig.

Maroons Earn 11 - 10 Season Record

The 1955-56 Austin Maroons entered the season with only two returning lettermen and a big job of rebuilding ahead of them. The squad was composed of four seniors, seven juniors, and a single sophomore. However, a car accident put junior Harvey Ford out of action after only one game.

Coach Wallace Dockall guided his squad to a winning seasonal record of 11 wins and 10 losses. It was the third winning season for Coach Dockall at Austin High.

Taylor was Austin's initial foe, and the Maroons plastered the Ducks 48-30. Rex Nichols led the attack with 19 points.

Austin returned home to extend its "jinx" over McCallum, defeating the visiting Knights, 48-35. It was the sixth victory in a row for AHS over a three-year period. John Lucio bucketed 21 points to pace the Maroons' attack.

Travis was Austin's next foe and proved itself worthy opposition before bowing to the Maroons, 49-36. The Crimson had to hurry the last quarter, for they were hard pressed by the scrappy Rebels.

Austin met its nemesis in McCallum's gym in mid-December as the Northsiders slipped past the Maroons, 45-44. The Knights' great guard, Jay Arnette, rolled to high point honors with 25 markers.

The Maroons bounced back the next game, upping Travis' Rebels 50-45. Nichols chipped in 16 points for the Austin five.

The Capital City crew journeyed to San Marcos to bow before the Rattlers' onslaught, 41-37. The going got particularly rough during the final period when Nichols fouled out.

A brief rest netted Austin nothing, as the cagers were easily beaten by San Antonio Tech, 68-46, in the Alamo City Invitational Tournament. Nichols paced Austin's hapless cause with 20 points. Austin blew a ten-point lead in the third quarter but managed a 65-63 overtime victory against Miller of Corpus Christi in a consolation tilt. Nichols clinched the game in a third overtime with a jump shot. December 30, AHS blew another ten-point lead but resurged to win in another overtime over Jefferson, 63-59. Nichols had his greatest scoring performance with 39 points. Mack Breedlove also aided the Maroons' scoring punch.

Despite a last minute comeback by Maroon Coleman Proctor the San Marcos Rattlers downed Austin, 43-38. The Maroons' final drive was not enough to overcome a poor start.

Austin closed out non-district play with lopsided victories over Belton and Taylor. The Maroons ripped Belton, 74-56, and took an easy 70-46 win over the Ducks of Taylor.

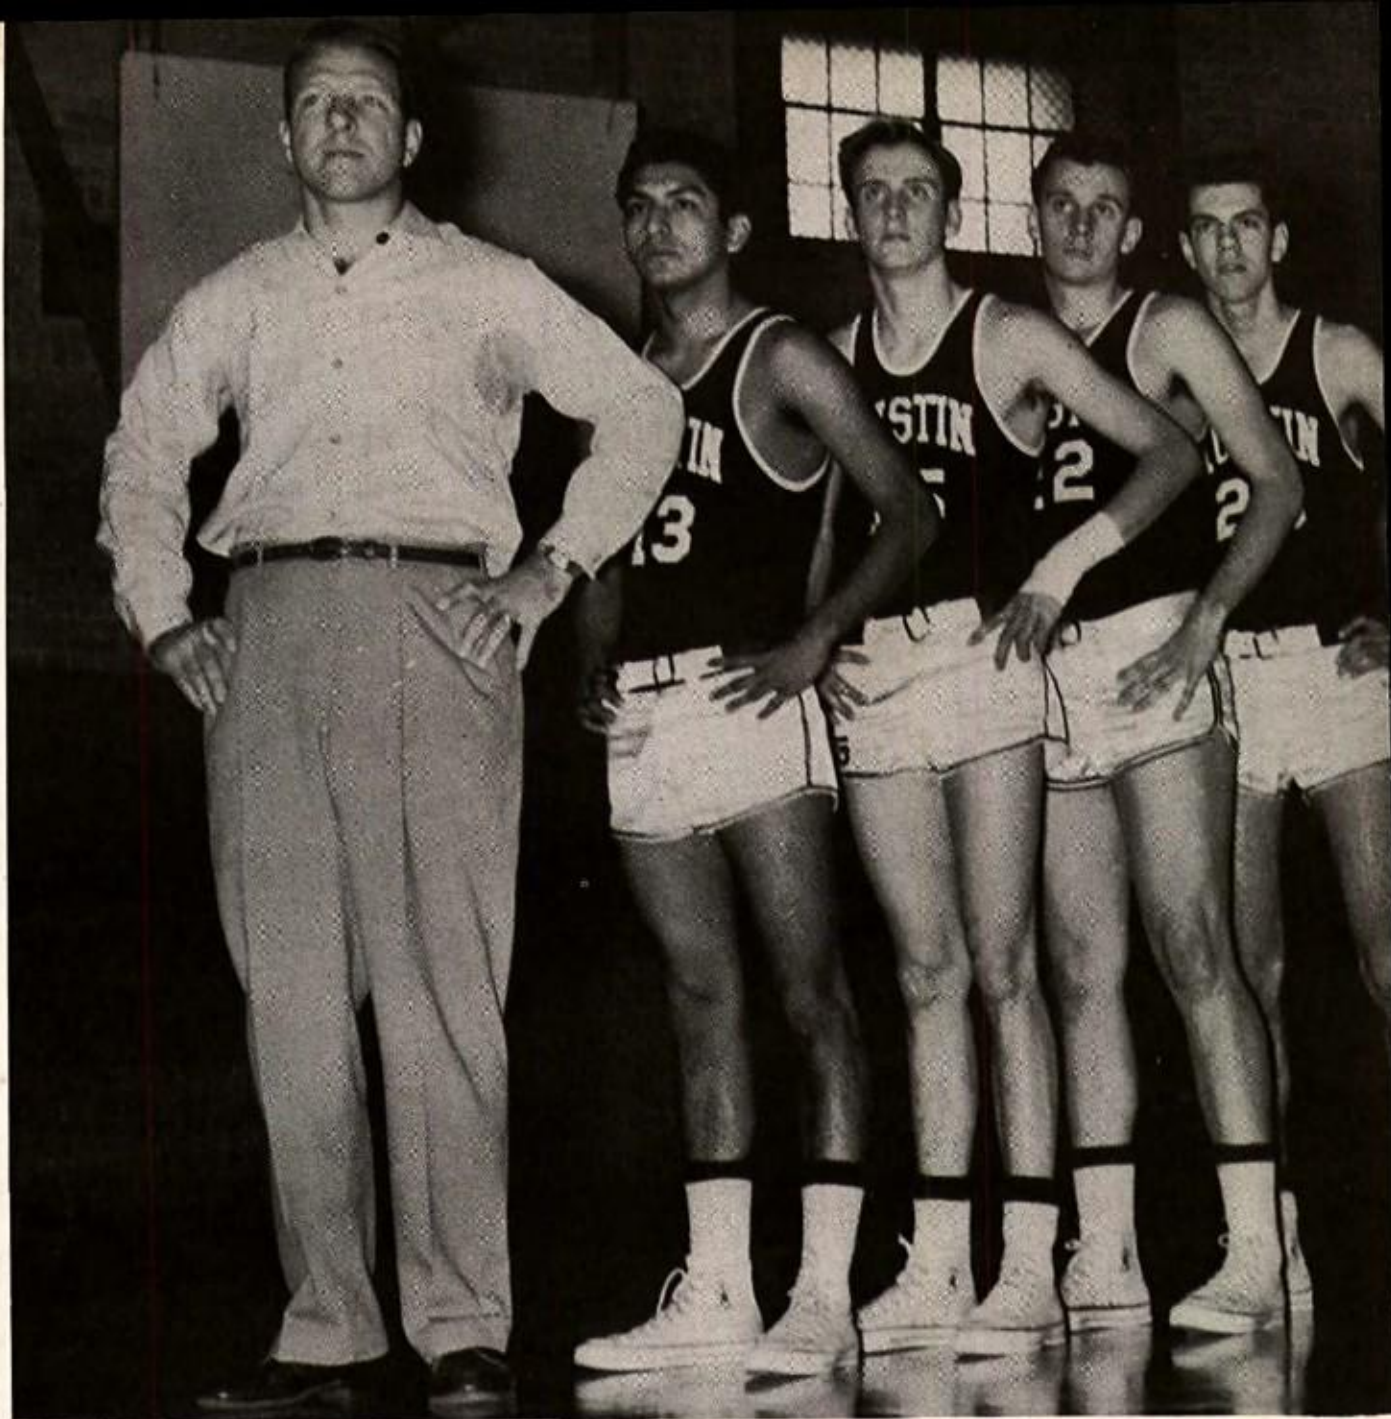

Nichols aided the Maroons to a winning year when he dumped in two points in the final second of play against Concordia in Gregory Gym. The Polio-benefit preliminary tilt saw Nichols drop 18 points against the fast-breaking Cardinals as the Maroons won 49-47.

Coach Wallace Dockall explains a play to the Maroon team with his drawing on the blackboard. This was coach Dockall's third consecutive successful season in his many years at Stephen F. Austin.

John Warner and Sammy Woolsey take time out from their many chores as Maroon managers to pose for our camera. This was John's second year as Varsity manager and Sammy's first.

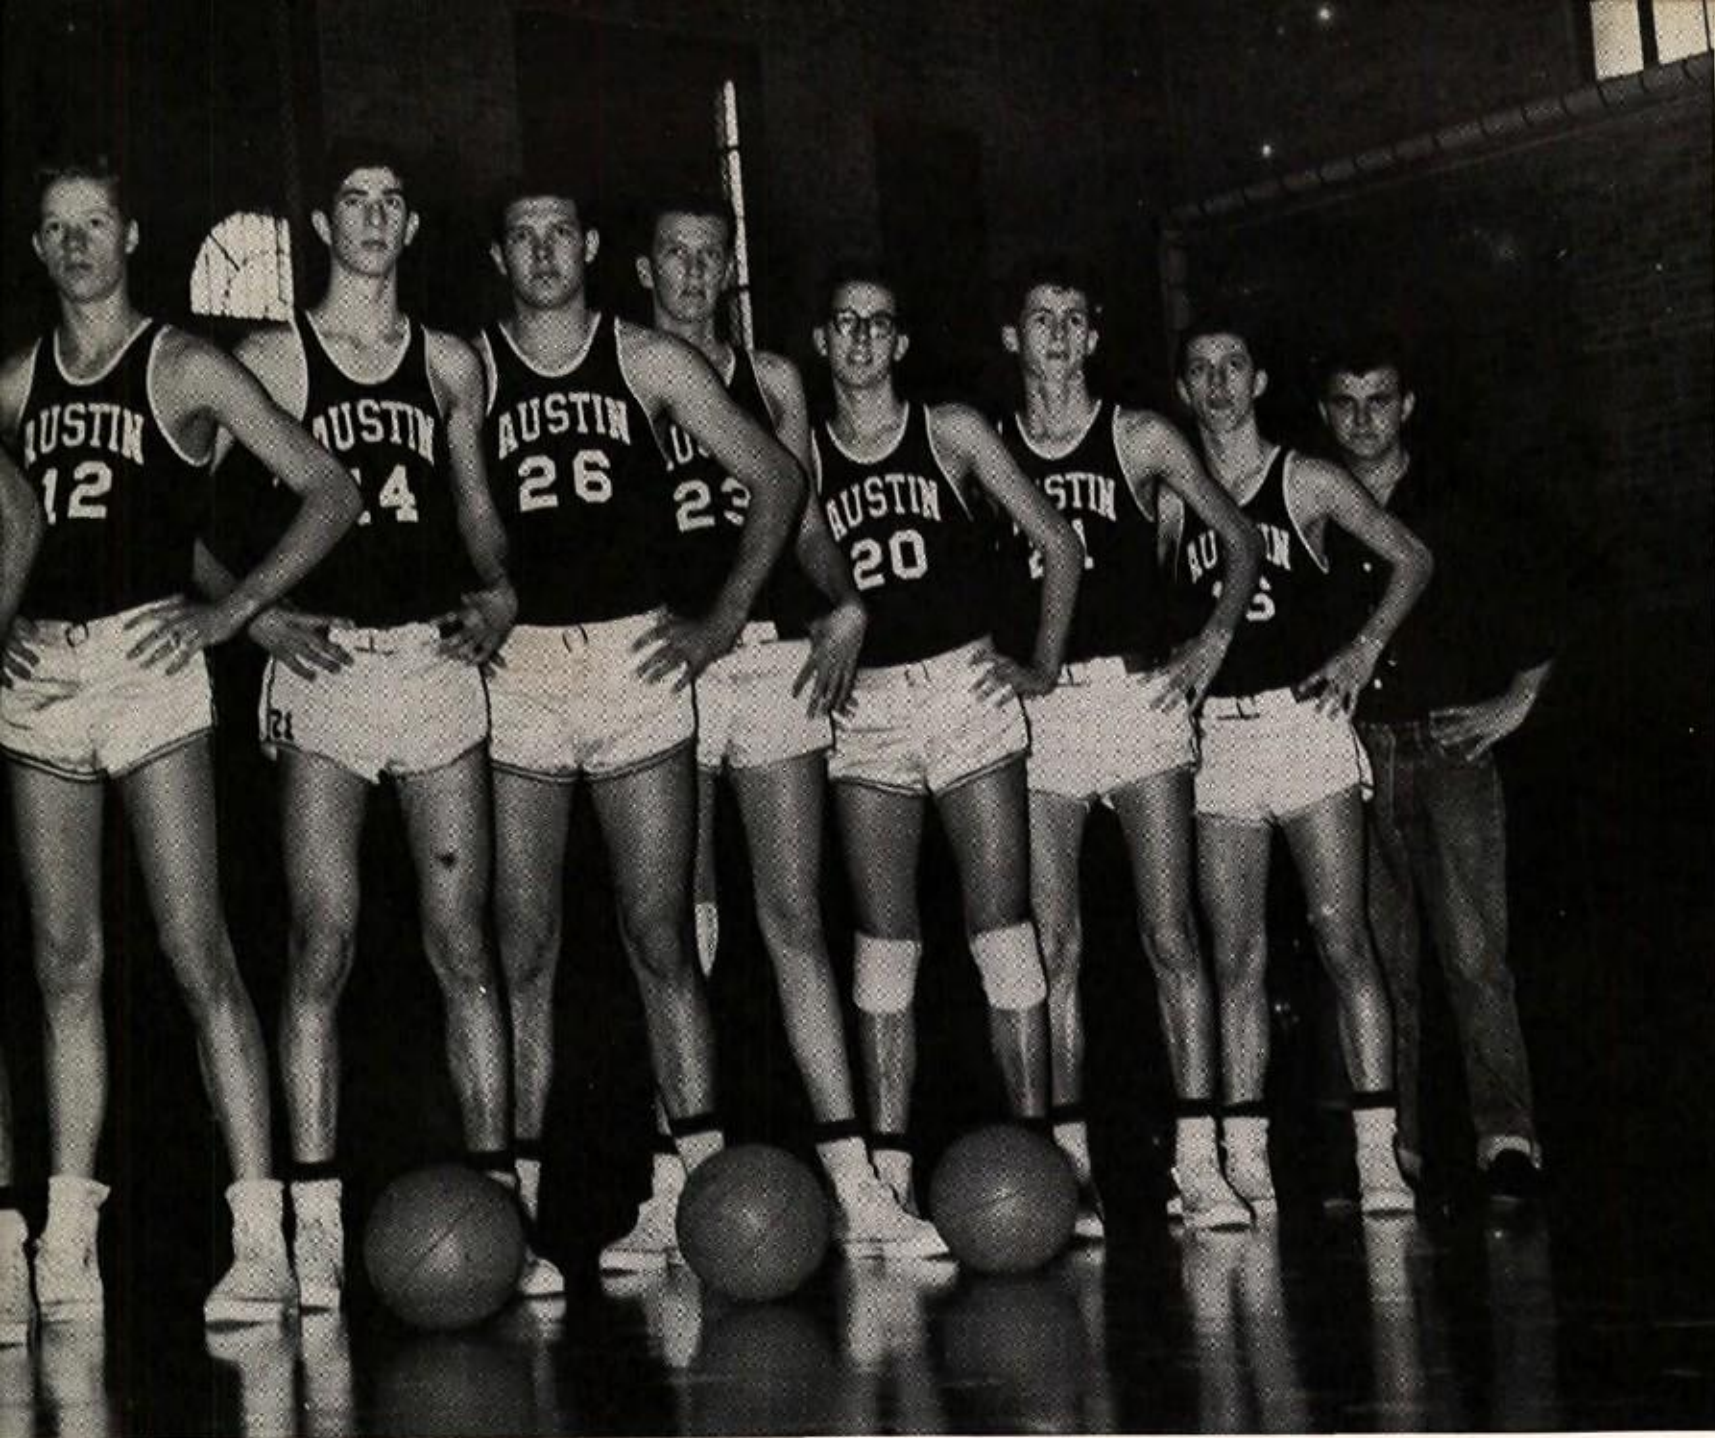

The Austin Maroons, 1955-56: Coach Wallace Dockall, John Lucio, Bob Dowd, Mack Coleman Proctor, Will Knox, and

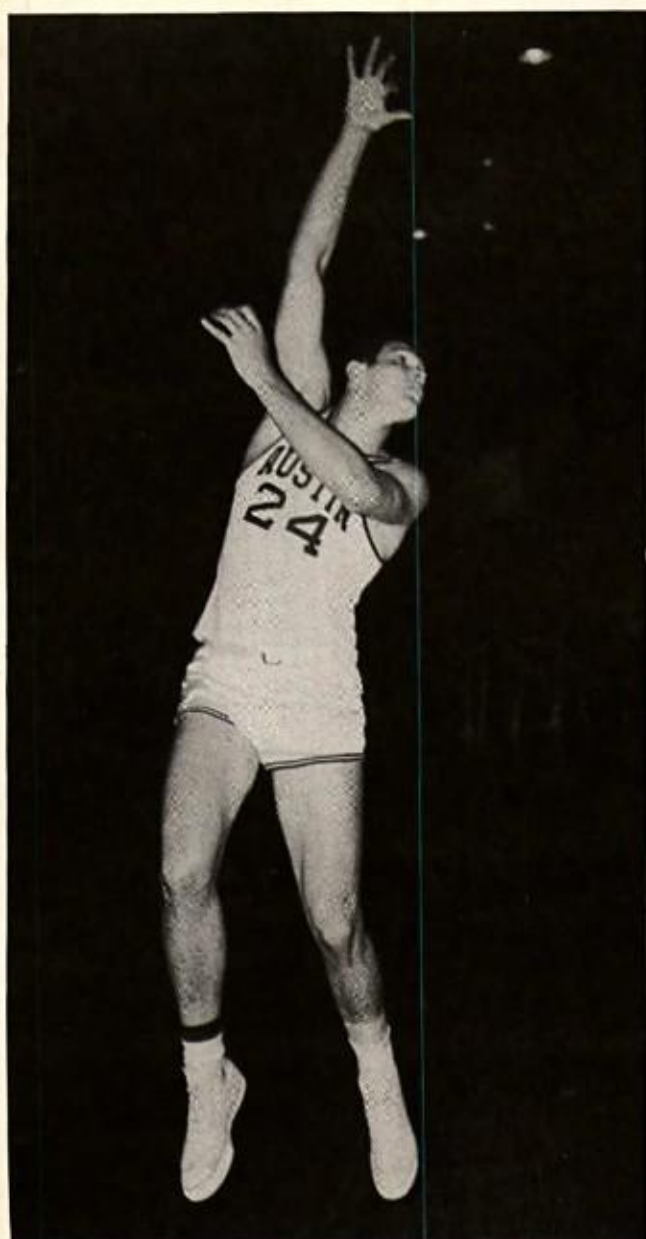

Will Knox (16) passes off to Mack Breedlove (22) as Roger Neubauer (18) and executive Guedea (15) contend for Travis. The Maroons swamped the Rebels on the Southerners' home court, 49 to 33.

Breedlove, Charles Goeking, Douglas Funk, Bert Cromack, Rex Nichols, Mike Maroney, Sam Sparks, Team Manager John Warner.

Rex Nichols (with ball) grimaces as he fights his way clear from a host of San Marcos players. The visiting Rattlers downed the Maroons for the second time in the season, 43-38. It was the first game for Nichols after his tremendous showing in the San Antonio tournament.

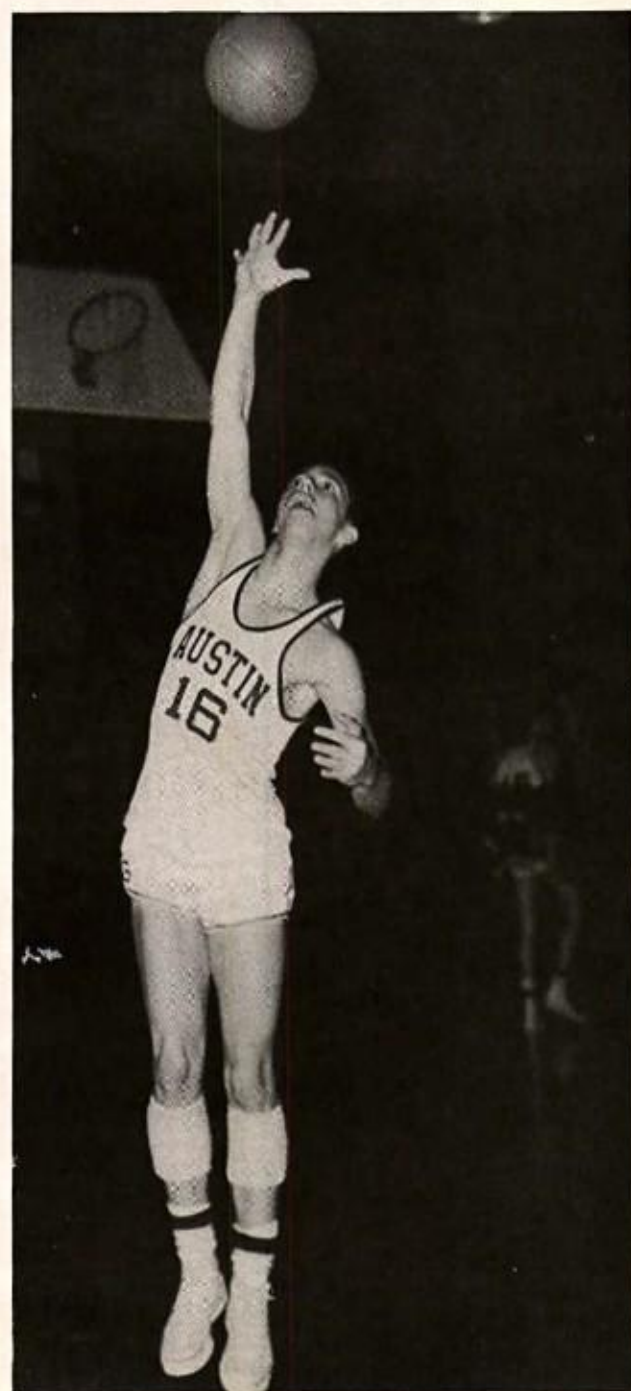

MIKE MARONEY (C)

REX NICHOLS (C)

Tall Maroon center, sparked the Crimson's offensive attack as leading scorer in District 5AAAA. Nichols, a co-captain, finished out the season as an excellent rebounder. Rex earned a first-string position on the All-District team.

WILL KNOX (G)

A clever and elusive ball-handler, Junior starter Will Knox moved the ball for the Maroons with all the poise a player needs. Will should be the stalwart of next year's squad.

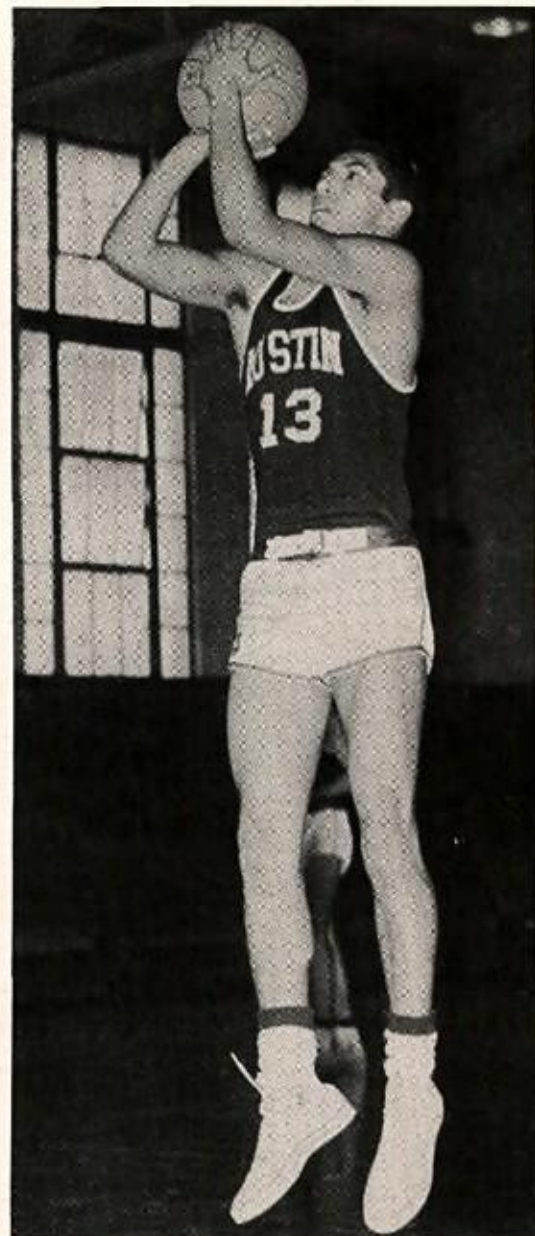

COLEMAN PROCTOR (G)

Up from the B-team, Coleman Proctor was a regular starter for the Maroon team. Co-Captain Proctor, one of the top scorers on the hardwoods, was an offensive ace. He also copped a berth on the All-District second squad.

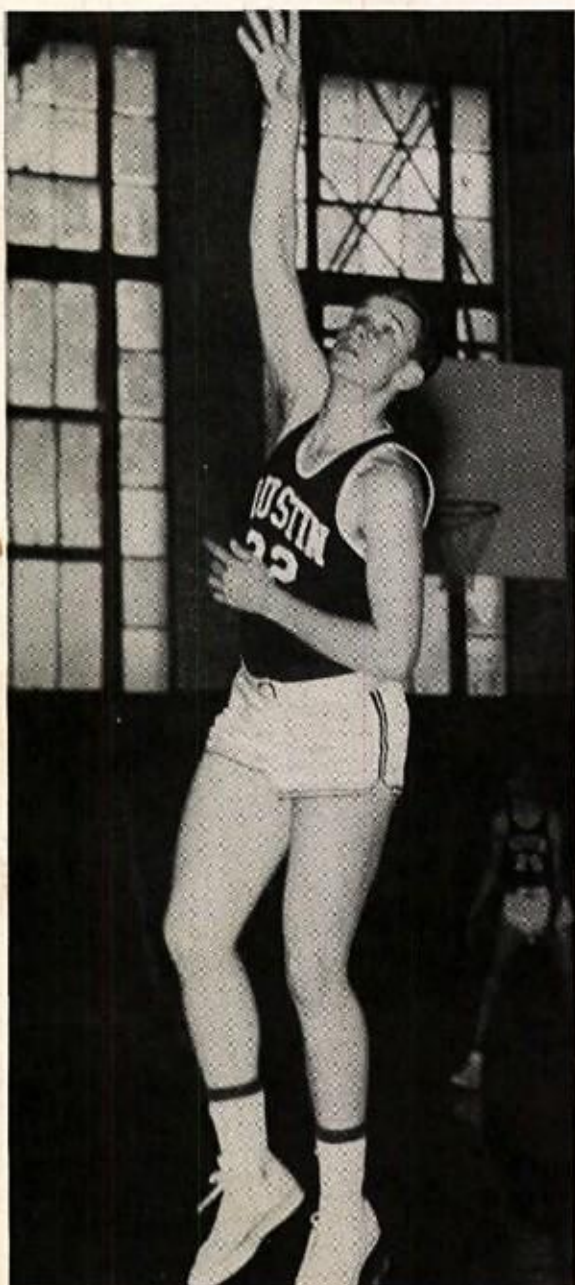

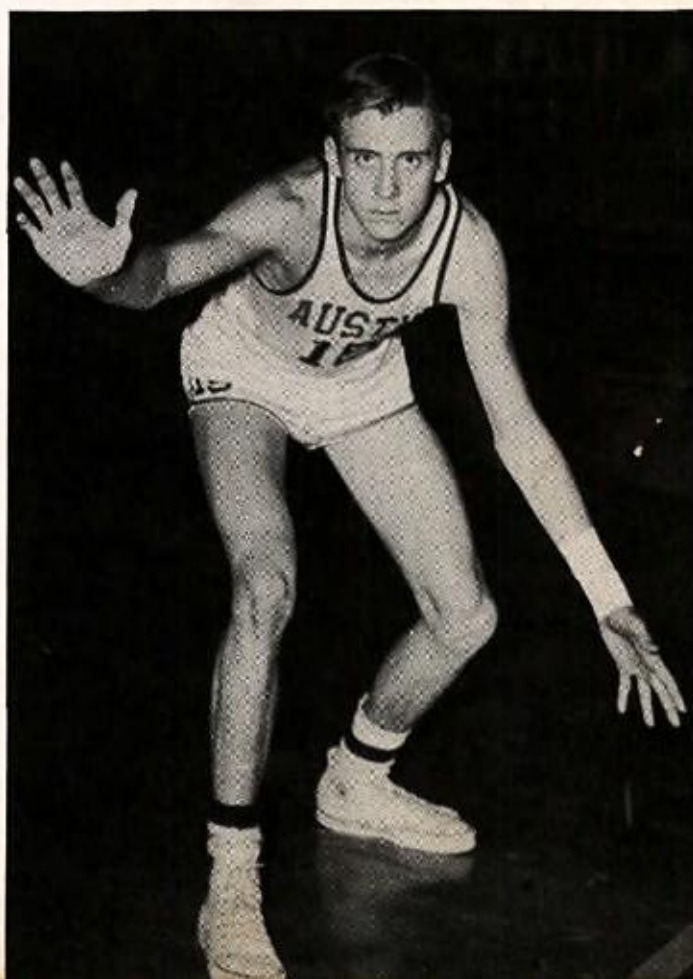

COLEMAN PROCTOR drives in for a crucial bucket against the McCallum Knights, as Mack Breedlove, upper left, looks on.

JOHN LUCIO (F)—Half of Austin's two year letterman nucleus, Lucio was often called upon for special defensive duty.

BOB DOWD (G)—Bob was hampered by a broken wrist during the middle of the season, but he recovered rapidly and saw much action the remainder of the year.

MACK BREEDLOVE (F)—Breedlove, a hook-shot artist, was a skilled pivot man.

Tigers Divide Series With Maroon Quintet

Austin High repeated last year's story with another split with Waco in their annual two-game district series. The Austin Maroons opened district play for the 1956 season with Waco's Tigers in a thrilling overtime game in Waco. After a surprising 20-point fourth quarter rally, the Crimson five fell before the Tigers, 65-60, in the "fifth" quarter. Rex Nichols led the final quarter spurt with 10 points, giving him a total of 27 markers for the game.

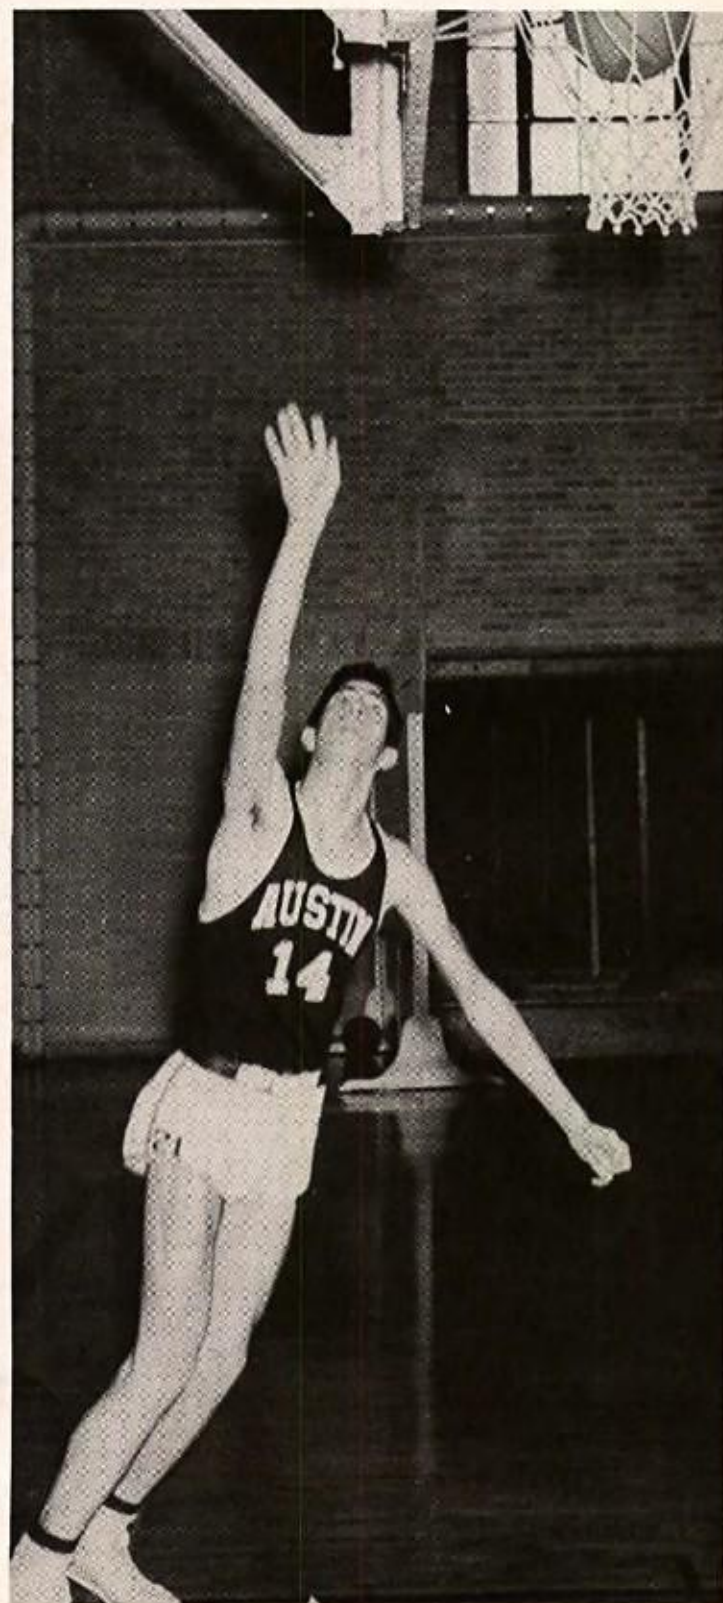

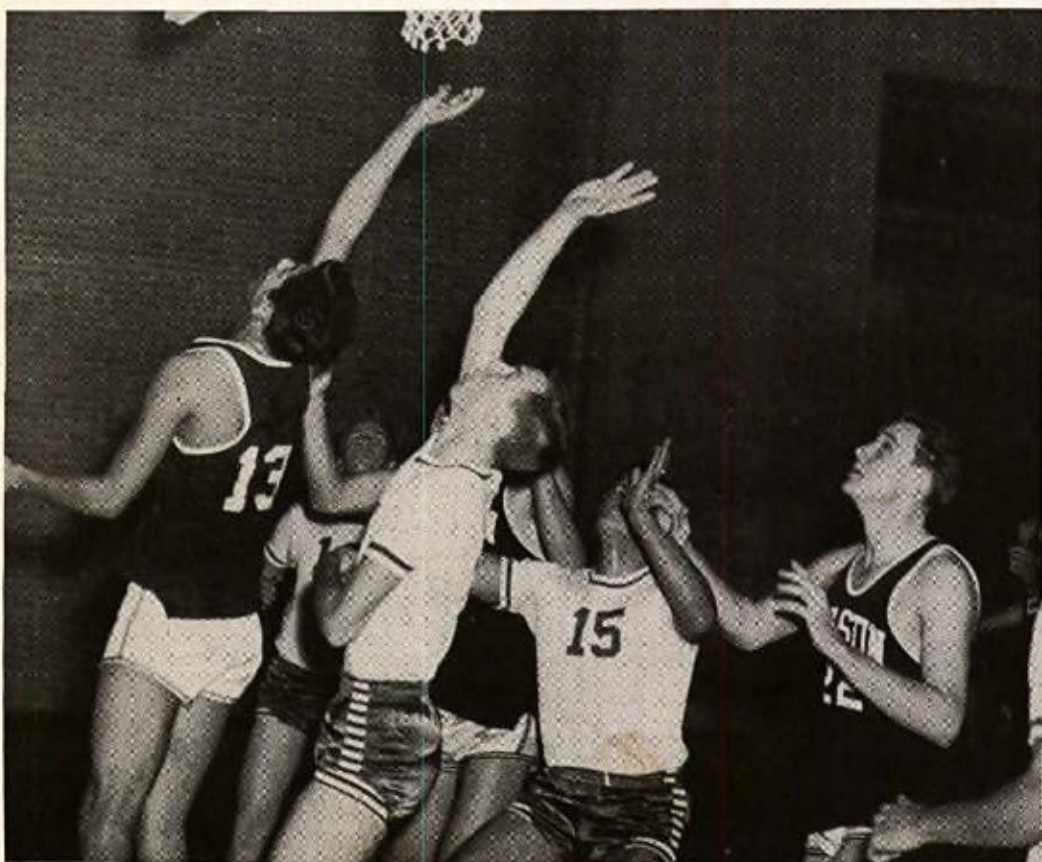

Revenge was in the hearts of the Maroons in their second meeting with the Tigers, as Coleman Proctor led the squad with 20 points to defeat the Wacoans, 45-37, in the AHS gym. John Lucio turned in 12 points during a second half splurge. This was Austin's initial victory in district 5AAAA play, but Wallace Dockall's quintet was hard pressed throughout the tilt and trailed at halftime, 21-20. One item which aided the Crimson cause was their 23 free throws made out of 25 attempts.

Bob Dowd and Travis player Raymond Canion fight for the ball in the Rebel gym as Rex Nichols prepares to enter the scramble for the Maroons.

BERT CROMACK (F)—Bert is another of the many players up from the B-team on the varsity squad this year. Cromack has showed vast improvement in his coordination as this past season has progressed.

John Lucio, number 13, has just gone up for two as Mack Breedlove gets set to take a possible rebound against the Travis Rebels.

Lions Deal AHS Double Blow

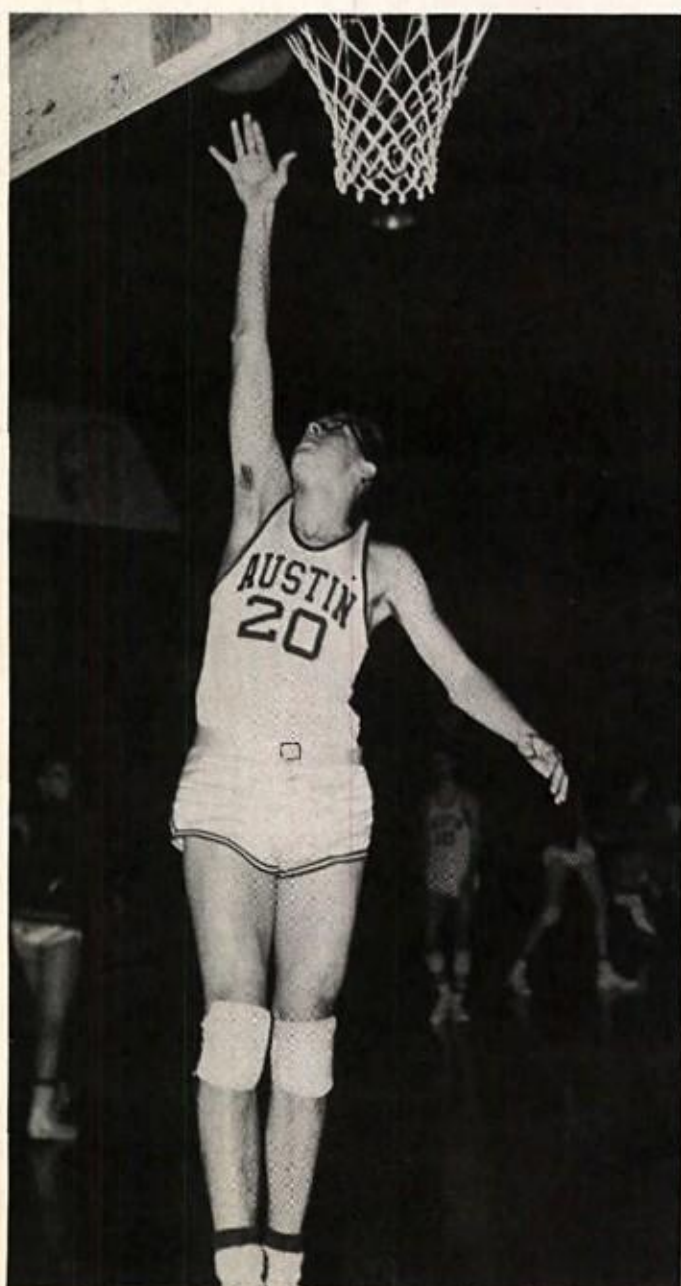

The Tyler Lions swept a two game series with the Stephen F. Austin Maroons on the hardwoods this season to gain revenge for last year's victories dealt by Austin over Tyler.

The Lions dominated the backboard and offensive play in the first game between the two clubs this year, as the Tyler five captured a 57-41 victory over the Maroons in the AHS gym. This was the Maroons' second loss of the season. Rex Nichols took high point honors for the Maroons, with 21 points.

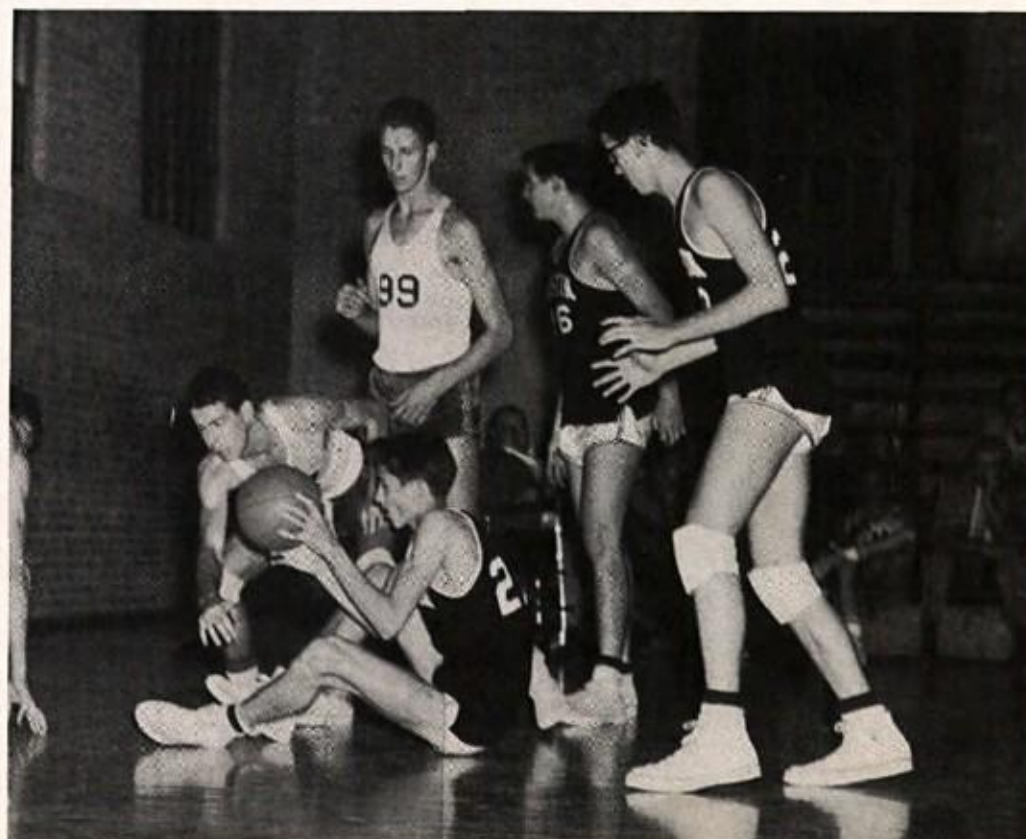

A foul-filled game describes the second meeting of these two teams, as the Maroons had 27 fouls against their name to help the Lions take their second victory over the Crimson squad this season, 62-49. Nichols again turned in a good game against the Lions with 24 points to be high point man of the tilt. Coleman Proctor scored eight points for the second time against Tyler this year. This contest concluded district play for the Maroons this season.

REX NICHOLS, (24), and COLEMAN PROCTOR, (far right), prepare to tip-in Mack Breedlove's unsuccessful shot against the San Marcos Rattlers in the Austin High Gym.

SAM SPARKS (G)—Junior forward Sam Sparks is an excellent defensive man on the Maroon squad. He should be a valuable asset on the team next year.

COLEMAN PROCTOR gains possession of the ball after being fouled by a Belton player. Proctor hit for 17 points in the Maroons' victory over the Tigers in the AHS gym.

CHARLES GOEKING (G)—Up from the B-team, Charles has been utilized very efficiently this season because of his versatility.

DOUGLAS FUNK (F)—Douglas, excellent on rebounding, broke into the starting lineup midway in district play last year. He should be a top contender for next year's starting five.

Wichita Garner Two Wins Over Maroons

The same old jinx still remained this year as the Wichita Falls Coyotes picked up two victories from the Austin Maroons.

Not since 1949, when Austin was defeated in the state finals in football by the Coyotes, have the Maroons been able to beat this jinxing school in either football or basketball.

A stout zone defense proved fatal to the Crimson five as the district champion 'Falls squad won the opener between the two, 44-40. The Maroons threw a big scare into the Coyotes, however, for they led by seven points with only five minutes left in the game. When Nichols fouled out in the remaining minute, Wichita Falls went on ahead to take the game.

Again the North Texans' zone stifled the Maroon offense in their second meeting in the Austin High Gym, 41-37. Not even a top-notch performance by Guard Coleman Proctor could prevent the Maroons from absorbing their fourth-district defeat, one that mathematically eliminated them from the 5AAAA race. Proctor hit for seven of Austin's total of 12 field goals, ending up with a sum of 18 points to be high-point man for the Maroons.

Austin Splits With Scots To Deadlock Cellar Spot

Austin High and Highland Park each proved to be "home court" squads, splitting the two district games played against one another.

The Maroons won the opener between the two cellar-dwellers, as Rex Nichols dumped in 24 points to lead Austin to victory, 56-50. Austin led 49-31 at the end of the third quarter, but Highland Park applied a full court press to near maximum efficiency in the last quarter. With but one minute left in the game, the surprising Scotties had pulled within three points of the Maroons. However, Austin then took control for the remainder of the tilt.

Highland Park gained revenge in its own gym later in the season, winning 68-61. Although Austin led at halftime, the Scotties mustered a third-quarter uprising to assure their victory. Once again, Nichols was the high scorer of the game with 26 points made to his credit before fouling out in the fourth quarter.

Coleman Proctor wound up with 11 points for Austin, after having four quick offensive fouls called against him in the first half.

Bill Kennedy scored 17 points for Highland Park.

MIKE MARONEY (F)—Mike, the tallest man on the team, was the lone sophomore on the varsity.

Maroon Varsity Baseball Team

DON HATHERLY (Pitcher)—Don's fast ball came in handy several times during the season play.

JESSE HERNANDEZ (Catcher) — This is the second year Jesse's powerful bat and excellent catching have aided the Maroons.

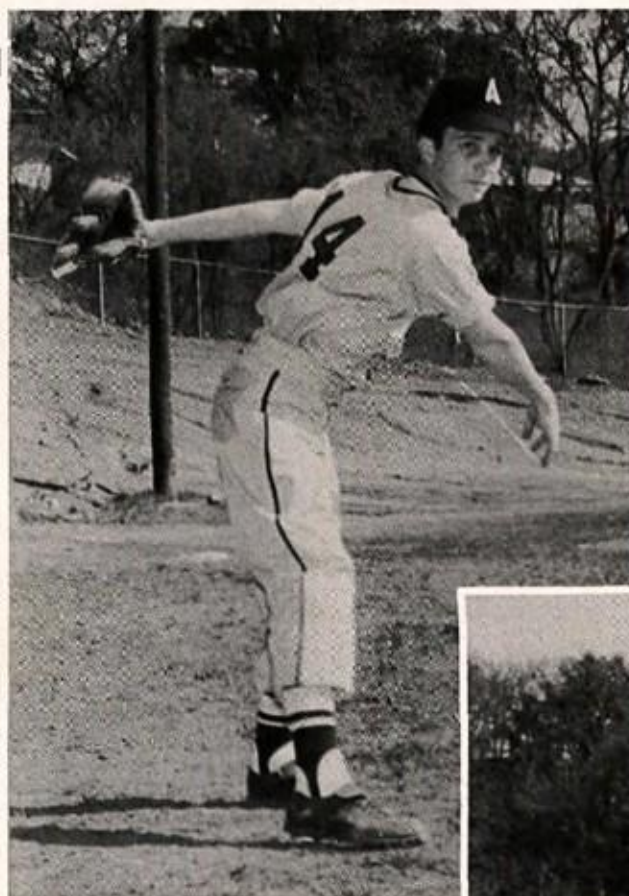

The Coach

COACH TRAVIS RAVEN guided the Maroon baseball team to a co-district championship in 1955 and led them to a successful season this year. Pre-season predictions ranked Austin high in district rating. This was Raven's third year as baseball coach at Austin High.

DICK SMITH (Senior manager) — His second year with the club, Dick's number-one chore was to keep the scorebook up to date.

CHARLES LeNOIR (pitcher) — A two-year letterman on the Maroon squad, Charles got a late start due to a back injury. LeNoir notched a no-hitter in 1955 during district play.

TWO ACES

EDDIE BARRETT (pitcher) — Eddie began the season as an outfielder, but switched to pitching, where he was needed the most. Barrett is a two-year letterman.

NOBERT ROSAS (Junior manager) — Nobert racked many a bat and chased many a ball during his season with the Maroons.

Maroon Varsity

LEROY SMITH (shortstop)—LeRoy earned a spot on the second team All-district. A dependable fielder, LeRoy's big bat kept the defense hopping.

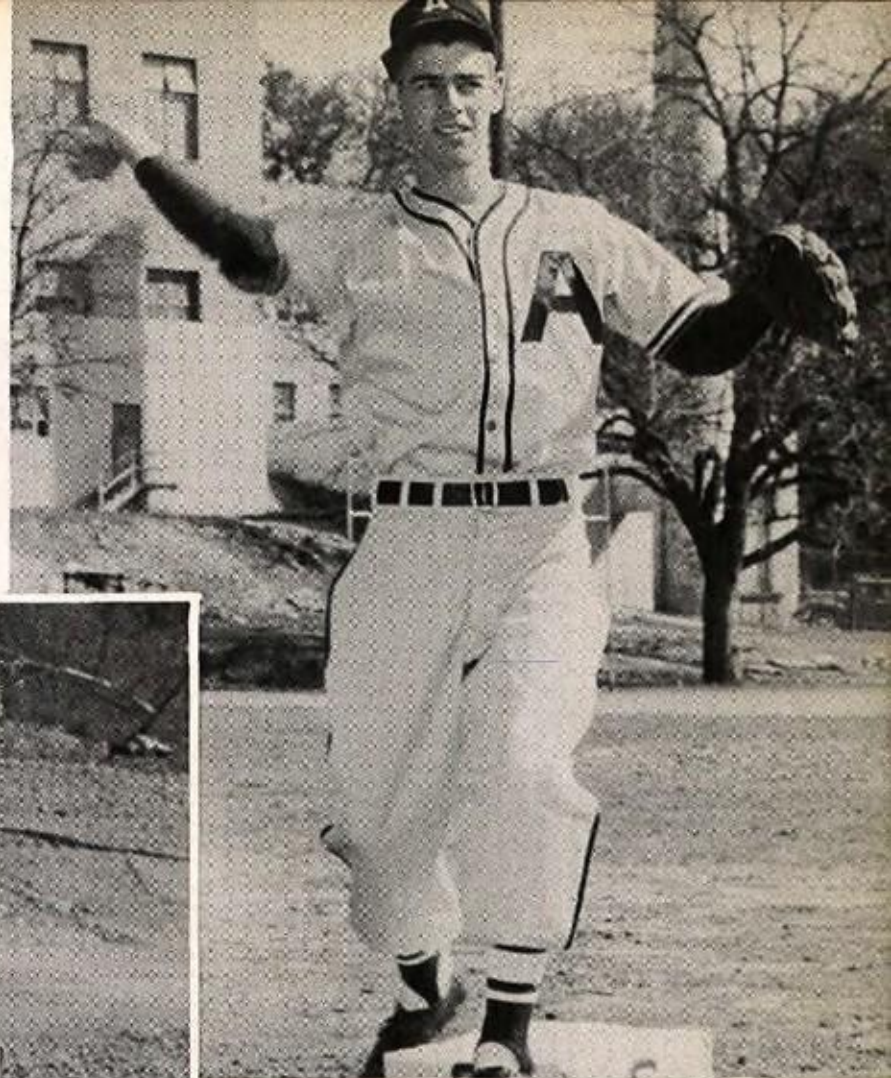

LARRY CARPENTER (second base)—The squat second sacker inspired the team with his spirit and hustle. Greatly improved over last year, Larry earned a starting berth.

JERRY ADAMS (first base)—Another change over, Jerry moved from the outfield to play first base, filling the position to maximum efficiency. "Smiley" was a batting ace.

Baseball Team

LEE HUGHES (second base)—
A defensive ace, Lee shifted from shortstop where he played last year to second base.

Smith's dependable hitting and fielding was a valuable asset to the squad this year.

JESSE LUNA, ARTHUR DRIS-
KILL (pitchers)—Jesse saw little action but appears to be good material for next season. His first year with the Maroons, Art baffled many an opposing batter with his blazing fast ball.

Top Maroons

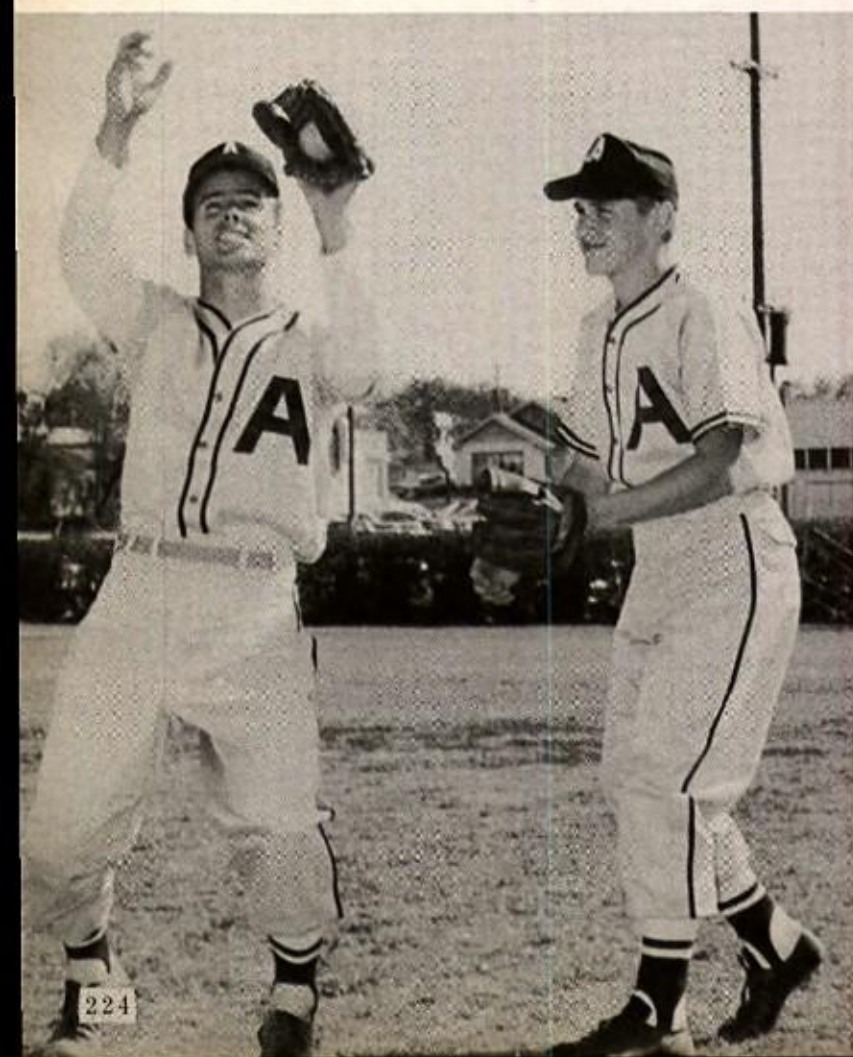

ROGER NELSON (third base)—A two-year man, Roger saw much action with his powerful bat.

BOB NUNIS, JOHN JOHNSON (outfielders)—Both Bob and John were reserves this year, but they should be good prospects for next season.

MILAM JOHNSON (third base)—A junior, Milam's impressive attitude vaulted him into the starting lineup at the hot corner. He is a dependable hitter.

Three Freshmen

CARLOS NAVARRO (catcher)—His first year on the squad, Carlos' main duty was to help warm up the pitcher while first string catcher JESSE HERMANDEZ put on his equipment.

... And a Lone Senior

ROYCE GOURLEY (pitcher)—Royce saw limited action on the mound, but he was called upon often because of his valuable hitting ability.

LEROY SMITH leaps into the broad jump pit as DON STREETMAN receives pointers from COACH GLEN SWENSON. This is Swenson's third year as track coach. STREETMAN polevaults for the Maroons.

MAROON DASH AND SPRINT MEN — Jesse Luna, Pete Johnson, Jack Shooter, Bruce Knierim, and John Steinle.

SAMMY HORTON, Maroon polevaulter, clears the top in excellent form. Horton also hurdles in the track meets.

MAROON "440" TEAM — Pete Johnson, Bruce Knierim, James White, and John Steinle. Team managers Manuel Martinez and Nick Huntzis check the relay time.

MAROON MILERS—Pete Guthrie, Curtis Wilcott, Ben Glover, Ned Buratti, Bob Massengale, Johnny Voudouris, Louise Lowe, Parker Burgin, Owens Wilson, and Juan Cortez.

HIGH JUMP—Standing: John Babcock, Don Nelson, Bob Dowd, and Jimmy Wheat. Kneeling: George Wilhite, Lee Mayfield, and Truman O'Quinn.
